

AMITABH BACCHAN'S

Birthday Special Kaun Banega Crorepati Episode

On the occasion of Amitabh Bacchan's 75th birthday, the 11th October episode of Kaun Banega Crorepati was a special one. Dedicating the episode to the host, the show began with the audience singing the happy birthday song to him. Furthermore, as a tribute, the audiences of that episode were taken to Amitabh Bacchan's college, Sherwood College in Nainital. There too, the students and the teachers sang happy birthday to Amitabh Bacchan. It was an emotional day for the renowned host and actor of Indian television and film industry, and with rounds of gratitude, he reminisced about his college days with the viewers. Star Showbiz wishes Amitabh Bacchan a belated happy birthday and many more happy days to come.

.....
Source: Internet

ROBERT DE NIRO

Slams TRUMP

Fans know the two-time Oscars and Golden Globe Award winner Robert De Niro as a vocal anti-Trump supporter. In the past, he has badmouthed the US President Donald Trump quite vividly, and judging his recent words, he does not plan on stopping anytime soon. In the Annual Hudson River Park Gala where Robert De Niro was honored by having a park bench dedicated to him, the 74-year old veteran actor took the opportunity to slam Trump once again. "One of my pleasures will be keeping people off my bench," said Niro, "people like Donald Trump, who don't deserve a view of this park." He also called Trump a "lowlife" and unleashed a barrage of swear words at the President. Niro has also been heard calling Trump a "flat-out blatant racist" and consider him being "dangerous".

.....
Source: Internet

The New 'Stranger Things' Trailer gets the World talking

In its first season, Stranger Things averaged ratings around 14.07 million adults between the ages 18-49 in the US. The first trailer for the second season turned heads with the inclusion of Michael Jackson's Thriller. The final trailer, released on October 13 had over 7 million views in the first three days. The trailer teases the inclusion of the mythical 'tentacled' monster that the show constantly teased in the first season. The show's producer Shawn Levy was quoted saying that every shot of the trailer was debated over, as they wanted to give the audience a "real taste" of what is to come. The second season will premiere on Netflix in October 27.

.....
Source: HuffPost

