

Putting up a sign does not necessarily create awareness. The litter-strewn place beside rail tracks at Shantibagh in the capital is a glaring example of such statement. Even though a local organisation posted a sign there requesting not to litter, nobody seems to care. The photo was taken yesterday.

officer in Gouro Mandir and Dutta Bari attack cases, told The Daily Star that they were working intensively because both cases were important.

"Names of more than 200 people are likely to be included in the charge sheet of each case. That's why we are verifying the pros and cons of them," he claimed, adding that the charge sheet would be submitted soon.

Shadhon Kanti Chowdhury, the officer investigating the torching of Anjan Dev's residence and attack on Rasraj Das's house, said there were no names in the First Information Reports (FIRs) when those were filed. Some were arrested in the two cases on suspicion, he said.

"We are taking time to get evidence of the crime."

Mizanur Rahman, superintendent of police in Brahmanbaria, said the police headquarters was monitoring the investigation into all eight cases.

He also said 200 people were found involved in the attack in a latest investigation. "For all these reasons, the investigation officers are taking time to complete their investigation."

Officer-in-Charge of Nasirnagar Police Station, Md Abu Zafar, echoed the SP.

The violent attack still haunts the Hindus in the area, and they are very disappointed for not seeing punishment of the criminals.

Rasraj Das, the main victim of the incident, said, "Nightmare of the day of my arrest still haunts me. I am a poor man; still I have to appear before the court every month. I want relief from this hassle."

"Although the police investigation has found that I didn't post the anti-Islamic content on my Facebook account, the case against me is yet to be quashed," he added.

Sharifujjaman Chowdhury Sumon, a noted businessman in Nasirnagar upazila, said, "People of Nasirnagar do not want to see any recurrence of the October 30 incident. The trial of the cases has to be completed as early as possible to ensure punishment of the perpetrators."

Nirmal Chowdhury, general secretary of Goura Mandir Committee, said, "Questions have arisen whether we will get justice at all. If justice is not ensured, such heinous incidents will recur and the country will turn insecure for the minority people."

among the Hindus -- and their social position was determined by their history of origin, occupation, language and whether or not one was born Muslim or converted to Islam after birth, Prof Anisuzzaman said.

He quoted an anonymous researcher who described how one's superior social position was decided. "Nobility was determined by immigration from the west in direct proportion to the nearness in point of time and distance in point of land of origin from Bengal to Arabia."

Meanwhile, the Hindus and Muslims lived in such close proximity that often their myths, fables and accounts of historical figures were intermingled to present a unique style of literature that both could relate to, he said. But people's awareness of self-identity did not start to become acute until after the 19th century, said Anisuzzaman.

Presiding over the programme, Bangla Academy Director General Shamsuzzaman Khan said there were divisions among Muslims and other faiths and also among the Muslims themselves, but there was harmony as well.

Commenting on the lecture of Anisuzzaman, he said there could not be a more inclusive study of the social history of the Bangalee Muslims.

Prof Ahrar Ahmad, director general of Gyantapas Abdur Razzaq Foundation, gave the welcome speech, while Associate Professor Mohammad Azam of the Bangla department of Dhaka University gave a brief sketch on the life and works of Prof Anisuzzaman.

CU ADMISSION TEST

Another forgery gang busted

STAR REPORT

Police claimed to have busted another admission test forgery gang and held seven persons including two Bangladesh Chhatra League activists on Saturday night, hours before yesterday's "A" unit admission test of Chittagong University.

The detainees are Md Shahidullah alias Nisat Kaiser and Raihanul Haque -- master's students of the Institute of Education and Research at CU; Md Tuhin, a master's student of statistics at Chittagong Government College, and admission seekers -- Fahad, Sayed Al Kabir, Musfiqur Salehin, and Mizanur Rahman, reports our CU correspondent quoting police.

Shahidullah is an assistant secretary of suspended CU unit of BCL and Raihanul an activist of the unit.

CU Proctor Ali Asgar Chowdhury said, "Being informed, a team of Hathazari Police Station detained the duo near the campus on Saturday night."

"Police seized blank stamps, admission cards, mark sheets and certificates from their possession. During interrogation, they gave them the names of the admission seekers," he said.

Yesterday morning, the university authorities detained the four candidates and handed them over to police. The four then disclosed the name of Tuhin, another member of the gang.

The proctor said the four admission seekers said they had made a deal with the gang that someone would sit in the exam on their behalf in exchange for Tk 3.5 lakh each.

OC Belal Mohammed Jahangir of the police station said legal measures will be taken against the detainees.

Earlier on Thursday, police busted another "admission test forgery gang" and held BCL leader Isteyak Ahmed Surov and an admission seeker from the city's Badurtala area.

Isteyak, also an assistant secretary of the suspended CU unit BCL, was shown arrested in a case filed under the Public Examination Offences Act, 1980 (13) with Bayezid Police Station.

Earlier on Wednesday, Nazmul Kabir, a second-year student of English, was arrested in Bayezid area for his alleged involvement in test forgery. Based on his information, the law enforcers arrested Isteyak along with the admission seeker.

On Friday, CU authorities suspended Isteyak and Nazmul, said the proctor.

DUO TO BE QUIZZED AT JAIL GATE
A Chittagong court yesterday ordered police to quiz Isteyak and Nazmul at the jail gate in the case filed over admission test forgery, reports our staff correspondent.

The court of Chittagong Metropolitan Magistrate Safi Uddin gave the order after police produced them before it with a five-day remand prayer each, said Kazi Shahabuddin assistant commissioner of Chittagong Metropolitan Police.

BCL EXPELLED ISTEYAK
Meanwhile, the BCL central executive committee on Saturday expelled Isteyak for breaching the organisational rule.

The decision was taken at an emergency meeting, said Delwar Shahajada, office secretary of the committee.

Three fugitive Rohingyas held

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Police yesterday caught three Rohingyas, who fled from refugee camps in Cox's Bazar a few days ago, at a house in Chittagong city's Halishahar.

Azim Ullah, 40, and Hedayet Ullah, 16, fled from Kutupalong Camp and Anis Ullah, 17, fled Balukhali Camp in search of work, said Halishahar police.

According to a recent government direction, Rohingyas are not permitted to leave their camps until their registration process completes.

The three will be sent back to their respective camps, added police.

Soon after the surgery, Khadiza started to suffer from various complications. After a latest ultrasonogram revealed that the other twin was still inside her womb, Khadiza was admitted to Dhaka Medical College Hospital on October 22.

On October 25, DMCH doctors conducted another surgery on Khadiza and delivered a stillborn baby.

Salma Rouf, head of obstetrics and gynaecology at DMCH, told The Daily Star that Khadiza had experienced a very rare phenomenon when one of the twins develops inside the uterus, but the other outside.

This might have led the doctor at the Gouripur hospital to assume that the baby outside the uterus was a tumour.

Yesterday, the HC also issued a rule asking the respondents to explain why they should not be directed to stop providing negligent treatment to patients.

The health secretary, home secretary, director general of department of health services, civil surgeon of Comilla, head of gynaecology department of Comilla Medical College, mayor and chief executive officer of Comilla City Corporation, deputy commissioner of Comilla, owner of Gouripur Life Hospital and Digital Diagnostic Centre, and Dr Sheikh Hosne Ara have been made respondents to the rule.
