

Message from the Vice Chancellor

I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate all the graduates of BBA, MBA and EMBA batches of IBA, University of Dhaka. After years of hard work, dedication and persistence, you have overcome all the challenges along the way and graduated successfully.

The University of Dhaka has continuously been trying to instill human values and teachings in its students. We have always worked to ensure that we not only give the best possible education to our students but also help them grow as better human beings who can make exceptional contribution towards the growth of our country. We take immense pride in the fact that some of the prestigious individuals of this country who have made the nation proud belong to this institution.

Graduates from IBA have made notable contribution in various sectors of our country as well. They have taken on every responsibility with courage and brilliance and have exceeded expectations in the process. It will not be an exaggeration to say that the graduates of this institution have been playing a pivotal role in the corporate and industrial sector of our country. Therefore, we expect nothing less from the new batch of graduates.

On this festive auspicious occasion, I would like to remind our graduates to take to heart one of the counselling instructions, the father of the nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman received from his father Sheikh Lutfur Rahman: "Honesty of intention and honesty of purpose."

I wholeheartedly believe that IBA shall prevail to maintain its high standard of education and produce graduates who can excel in their respective fields. I would also like to congratulate all the faculty members and staff of IBA who have consistently worked hard to ensure that the students find themselves in an excellent environment which enables them to pursue sound education and shape themselves to be better individuals.

Long live University of Dhaka.
Long live Bangladesh.

Message from the Graduation Speaker

I would like to convey my heartfelt congratulations to the graduating students of Bachelors of Business Administration (BBA), Executive Masters of Business Administrations (EMBA) and Masters of Business Administrations (MBA) on their graduation day. I would also like to express my sincerest gratitude for the respected teachers, management and administration team of IBA for playing an instrumental role for a successful celebration of this program.

IBA, the oldest and most prestigious business school of the country, has been successfully and consistently providing Bangladesh with some of the greatest managers every year. In order to ensure a steady progress of our economy, it is essential to boost and support business growth. The IBA graduates have been a major force in driving the business growth of our country.

Today's graduates will go ahead to create major changes where ever they go and work to their utmost competency. Those who will move forward today with their graduation certificates, will contribute immensely to the economy, through their dedication to uphold and build the legacy of IBA. They bear the responsibility of making the country proud. I hope that they will continue to be efficient in climbing the ladder of success and inspiring the upcoming generations. They will now pave the path for the future, and show what leadership is, not just through their words, but through their actions and positive attitude.

I advise the graduates to continue their work with utmost perseverance, as the country is expecting great things from them. I once again, applaud the fresh graduates on this wonderful achievement and wish them every success in their future life ahead.

Message from the Pro Vice Chancellor (Academic)

I would like to express my heartiest felicitations to the graduates of BBA, MBA and EMBA batches of IBA, University of Dhaka. On this joyous occasion, we celebrate your persistence, perseverance and unwavering resolve which have led you onto the path of success. Let this be the epitome of how hard work can propel you towards your dreams and ambitions.

This hard-earned milestone is not just your achievement; it is the labor of all the people in your life which you have beautifully tied together and redesigned. Do everything possible to maintain this momentum of success.

The University of Dhaka takes great pride in the fact that this university has served as the alma mater of brilliant minds who have shaped our nation. You are now a part of this rich history. IBA graduates have been exemplary in contributing to the country's prosperity. So, we look to you with great hopes and expectations to bear forth your Alma mater's heritage and serve for the wellbeing of our nation.

So, go into the world and do well, but more importantly, go into the world and do good. We have a responsibility to our communities, our societies and our world. Irrespective of your area of specialization or the aspirations you are harboring, you must challenge yourselves to be socially responsible. Your aim now should be to take the education and experience of the years at IBA and induce positive changes in society and in the world at large.

I congratulate every faculty member and staff of IBA whose guidance and inspiration have molded your aspirations. I hope IBA continues to meet the standards the institution is well known for and sustains an atmosphere where individuals can excel. I wish you all the best for all your future endeavors.

Message from the Director

With immense delight, I congratulate this year's graduates of BBA, MBA and EMBA batches on this auspicious event and extend my heart-felt appreciation to all of you. As this marks the beginning of a new chapter in your lives, I would like to appreciate all of your roles as contributors of achievements which have made our beloved institution what it is today.

Graduating from IBA is not only a stepping stone leading towards the start of your professional life, it is also a commemoration of all that you have accomplished in your time here and the precious memories that have found a place in your heart. You have been trained time and time again and as you enter into your professional career, you will be carrying with you the responsibility of representing the institution with utmost dignity and sincerity. From here onwards starts your journey filled with expectations and opportunities where you should try your best to put all that you have learnt into good use.

As you embark upon this journey, prepare yourselves to be resilient to every setback that may come your way all the while reaching for the stars. Remember, your dreams are only as big as you dare make it. Be sure to go all in with competitiveness and resilience as your armoury, all the while keeping humanitarian responsibilities in check. For all your success will be for naught if you aren't a good enough human being in the first place. As a result, never lose sight of who you are as a patriotic and socially responsible person and carry out decisions accordingly.

I wish you all the best for your upcoming successes. I also take this opportunity to thank all my esteemed colleagues and staff as well as the parents and guardians for their dedication and hard work as they relentlessly trained and looked after you every step of the way, throughout all these years.

By congratulating you once again, my dear graduates, I wish you all the very best with your future endeavors and hope you make us all proud.
