

Thousands pay tribute to Bhasani

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Tangail

Thousands of people gathered at Santosh yesterday to observe the 41st death anniversary of Maulana Abdul Hamid Khan Bhasani, a legendary politician of the subcontinent.

They, as well as Bhasani's family, various political parties including Awami League, BNP, Jatiya Party, National Awami Party, Krishak Sramik Janata League, different socio-cultural organisations and educational institutions placed wreaths and bouquets at the grave of the leader. The brave and devoted Maulana earned himself the title "Mazlum Jana Neta" or the leader of the oppressed for his lifelong struggle for the oppressed. Bhasani's commitment to Islam did not make him a fanatic. His belief in the secular struggle for Bangladesh was unequivocal.

Born in Sirajganj in 1880, Bhasani fought against imperialism and oppression by the Pakistani rulers. He played a significant role in the 1969 mass movement. He led the historic Farakka Long March in 1976. He founded Pakistan Awami Muslim League and later formed National Awami Party.

Prof Mohammad Alauddin, vice-chancellor of Maulana Bhasani Science and Technology University, along with teachers and students of the institution, paid homage to Bhasani by placing wreaths at his grave around 7:30am.

Later, BNP secretary general Mirza Fakhrul Islam Alamgir, accompanied by party leaders and workers, placed a wreath at his grave. Bhasani died on November 17, 1976.

JCD general secretary held in capital

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Police yesterday arrested Jatiyatadabi Chhatra Dal (JCD) General

Secretary Akram-Ul Hasan in the capital's Paltan in connection with four cases.

Arrest warrants were issued for Akram in two cases, said police.

In a press release, the pro-BNP student organisation said Akram was arrested at Jatiya Press Club when he went there to join a programme organised jointly by Bangladesh Chhatra Forum and Uttaranchal Chhatra Forum.

The party's central committee condemned the arrest and announced that it would demonstrate across the country.

Comilla fire guts 20 shops

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Comilla

A fire destroyed 20 shops at Kongshonagar Bazar in Comilla's Burichang upazila yesterday.

The fire broke out at a restaurant around 4:30pm following the explosion of a gas cylinder, reports UNB. Firefighters brought the fire under control around 5:20pm.

The affected businessmen claimed that the losses would exceed Tk 1 crore.

tumour in her uterus by gynaecologist Fayeza at SMK Hospital. At one stage, the doctor came out of the operation room and asked them to take her to Comilla urgently.

His sister died before they could reach a hospital in Comilla, he said, alleging that wrong treatment by the doctors at the Chandraganj hospital is the reason behind her death. They had admitted Fatema to the hospital in the afternoon the day before, he also said.

OC Moktar Hossain of Chandraganj Police Station said they took the four into their custody to avoid any untoward situation. They would take necessary steps upon receiving formal complaints from the family, he added.

"Otherwise, we will wage a tough movement to materialise the demand," he added. A good number of leaders and activists of the party accompanied Fakhrul on the occasion.

"A repressive and oppressive government is hanging on to power forcibly," Fakhrul said calling upon his party people to unite and wage a movement.

"We all will have to participate in the movement so that people can exercise their voting rights in the upcoming general election," he added.

was picked up from an open place like the university. The authorities are responsible for this. It's their duty to protect us, but they failed."

Amid the demonstration, Vice Chancellor Prof Abdus Sobhan went to the spot and requested the students to withdraw the protest, but they refused. Later, around 6:30pm, students suspended their demonstration for the day and announced that the protest would resume today. After the end of the programme, Bangladesh Chhatra League unit of RU also held a half-hour demonstration at the same place, demanding her safe return.

Terming the incident unwanted, Proctor Prof Lutfor Rahman said, "We are trying our best to bring her back. It's our responsibility to help her family."

The VC told The Daily Star that the authorities had already instructed the law enforcers for her rescue.

Meanwhile, the student's father filed an abduction case against Shohel, his father, and four of his family members, said Officer-in-Charge of Motihar Police Station Mehedi Hasan. Quoting police, the proctor said Shohel's father was arrested in Naogaon.

HerStories: An inspiration socio-cultural organisations to finish their activities by 8:00pm. Amid a widespread criticism, the authorities withdrew its notice on October 23.

But after a few days, a proctorial team ordered the tea stalls in TSC area to close their businesses by 8:00pm, alleged many of the students.

Besides, on Sunday, Proctor AKM Golam Rabbani came to the area around 11:00pm and asked some of the resident students, who were spending time there, to chat inside their dormitories, they alleged.

Contacted, the proctor said the incident was nothing but a miscommunication between the students and the administration. "The administration did not give any notice about closing the tea stalls by 8:00pm."

Also, students can stay in the area after 8:00pm for their various cultural activities, he added.
