

TASHFEE JOINS MILES AND BAPPA MAZUMDER as an ambassador of ArtistSpread

In a star-studded reveal ceremony taking place at the Daily Star Center, Tashfee was named the First female ambassador of ArtistSpread. The initiative looks to give international platforms to Bangladeshi artists and is a joint venture of Sony DADC and Creinse. ArtistSpread will now look after everything related to the talented artist ranging from Marketing Management to Brand Endorsements. "Tashfee will have only one job from now on, and that is to sing. She will no longer have to worry about anything but that," said Rabeth Khan, CEO of Creinse. The reveal was followed by a mesmerizing performance from Tashfee, who sang a medley of different languages. The performance highlighted the international floor that awaits the artist known by her fans as the "Adele of Bangladesh".

Bangladesh's Jessia Islam Reaches Top 40 in Miss World

Jessia Islam, Miss World Bangladesh, has secured her place in the top 40 in Miss World 2017. She had announced the news through a facebook post this past Sunday. Not only this, she has also been titled as the winner of the head to head challenge. Her achievement has put Bangladeshi beauty industry in a glorified position. She is looking forward to winning more titles in the coming competitions.

Jessia Islam is the representative of Bangladesh at Miss World 2017. She has participated in different activities along with other contestants in China including attending the fourth China International Circus Fest and the ICB Fashion Party. The grand finale of Miss World will take place on 18 November, at the Sanya City in China.

GOOGLE'S TRIBUTE TO Humayun Ahmed

The most-used web search engine in the world, Google had created a doodle on Humayun Ahmed, marking his birthday on 13th November; 2017. It was a very kind gesture from Google to remember this iconic writer of Bangladesh. The doodle was a tribute to the fans of Humayun Ahmed on this special day. He would have turned 69 years on Monday.