

DAY 17

Shopping again, and it is accessories day today! Match your bags, shoes and sandals.

DAY 18

Shopping for the extended family.

DAY 19

Shopping for the immediate family.

DAY 20

Don't forget to include cosmetics in the wedding dala!

DAY 21

Try to pan-out the shopping phase

DAY 22

Enough with the shopping already, time to be ready with the dala. Design them with the help of family and friends or else you can subcontract to a vendor who specialises in dala making.

DAY 23

Your cards have arrived, start pasting names and addresses. It's an extremely tiring job though. Take the help of friends and family; provide them with the list. Make sure that no name is repeated. Mark the names carefully to separate. Mail the invitation cards.

While your friends are helping you with everything please take care of yourself and visit the parlour/salon again.

DAY 24

Your furniture has arrived. Please do the setting inside your room. If there's no hassle with furnishings, make yourself busy with other things like looking up for an entertainer/singer for your holud. Make appointments, book and finalise.

DAY 25

Call up the guests again to re-check whether they have received the cards or not. Visit the dentist, if you want to whiten your teeth for that dazzling smile.

DAY 26

You are too close to the big day so get away from any kind of hassle. Please inform all your good friends and close ones within the family about all the proceedings and assign each one with a duty.

This is the perfect moment to exercise the term, 'What are friends and family for?'

DAY 27

Parlour/salon – Relax, watch movies. Stag night with friends; DO NOT DO anything stupid that you might regret for the rest of your life!

DAY 28

Practice smiling a lot; you'd definitely need it. The dalas are prepared by now. Your clothes have been made to fit you. The jewellery is ready and all the vendors have been booked with advance payments. Breathe! Visit the parlour or the salon for a hot oil massage and whole-body massage.

DAY 29

Send the special dalas to your in-laws like your lady love's wedding sari or your hubby dearest's sherwani.

DAY 30

Switch off your phone, take a nap as long as you can. Cut yourself off from the rest of the world because tomorrow you need to look your best and impress thousands of guests, all with a ready smile!
