Hindu community members form a human chain in front of Ashwin Hall in Barisal city yesterday, alleging that an influential local was trying to grab a 1.37-acre land of a temple in Raypasha village of the sadar upazila. They said the land had been a property of Raypasha Sarbojaneen Kali Mandir for the last two centuries. It was also recorded in documents, but the influential man, Nurul Ahasan Bachchu, made some fake papers and tried to grab the land. A case was filed on the behalf of the temple committee, they added. However, Alom Rayhan, younger brother of Bachchu, said they bought the land in an auction in 1968 and filed a civil case claiming the property in June this year.
