OUR CORRESPONDENT, Jhenidah

A 18-month-old child died and its grandmother was injured after falling off the roof of a building at Nishchintapur village in Kaliganj upazila yesterday.

The dead is Yead Hossain, son of Rinku Biwas of the village.

Family sources said around 11:00am Monoara Begum and her grandson Yead were walking on the roof and suddenly they fell down. She was admitted to a local hospital.

3-day envoy conference begins tomorrow

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENT

Ministry of Foreign Affairs will hold a three-day consultation meeting in Dhaka tomorrow with participation of all the Bangladesh envoys currently posted in 58 countries.

This conference is being organised for the first time since independence. The theme of the Envoys' Conference is "Diplomacy for People and Peace".

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina will inaugurate the conference in the morning. High commissioners, ambassadors and permanent representatives of Bangladesh will take part in the event, said a press release.

The conference will have exclusive sessions on foreign policy issues in the changing global context. It will also have panel discussions on different contemporary national and international issues.

Ministers, advisers, lawmakers and senior officials will address the sessions and are expected to provide guidance in securing national interest.

The conference aims to discuss issues ranging from foreign policy challenges to implementation of development goals, expansion of trade, welfare of expatriate Bangladeshis and projection of Bangladesh as a responsible and peace loving state in the world. The envoys will also share their experience and discuss the challenges in promoting country's interest. They will also meet President Abdul Hamid before leaving Dhaka.

Vested quarter grabbing Hindu properties

Alleges Rana Dasgupta

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Pirojpur

A vested quarter is grabbing the properties of the Hindus, alleged Rana Dasgupta, general secretary of Bangladesh Hindu-Buddhist-Christian Oikya Parishad yesterday.

He was addressing as the chief guest a conference of Pirojpur district unit of the organisation at Ram Krishna Ashram in the town.

To grab the properties, grabbers are using the banner of a political party, he alleged. He also said the minorities will not vote for those who are behind the attacks on Hindus.

He demanded a safe environment for the minority communities before and after the national polls.

Tushar Kanti Majumder, convener of the district unit of the Parishad, presided over the programme where leaders and activists from central and local units were present.
