the last three weeks, forcing the family to tell a lie to Ariyana Nawar Hasan that her father went abroad for study.

Believing it, Ariyana, who turned six yesterday and spent a quiet birthday in absence of her father, asked her dear ones to tell her father for sending her favourite gift "My Little Pony". Mubashar is among at least 10 people including a journalist and a businessman who have fallen victims to abduction or enforced disappearance since August 22.

Of the victims, Businessman Aniruddha Kumar Roy returned home 81 days after he was abducted from the capital's Gulshan area on August 27.

society representatives strongly condemned the remand of Titu, sending him to jail and taking confessional statement from him forcibly.

Barrister Sara Hossain, honorary executive director of BLAST, said Titu was arrested over an alleged Facebook post, but keeping him in jail without granting bail was improper. He is not that harmful that if released, he would commit a crime, she added.

"What is the logic behind keeping him in custody for more than three weeks without any judgement?" she asked. Nijera Kori Coordinator Khushi Kabir said, "We know the process... how the law enforcement agencies take confessional statements."

The attacks on the religious minority are recurring due to an ineffective role of law enforcers and a lack of justice, she said.

The government has to clarify why such untoward incidents take place, she added.

Rana Dasgupta, general secretary of Bangladesh Hindu-Buddha-Christian Oikya Parishad; Syeda Rizwana Hasan, chief executive of Bela; and Shamsul Huda, executive director of ALRD; also spoke.

DU student continues hunger strike despite falling ill

DU CORRESPONDENT

Demanding Ducsu election, Dhaka University student Walid Ashraf continued hunger strike for the third consecutive day yesterday although he is falling ill.

A master's student of social welfare and research, Ashraf began the strike on Saturday on the Eternal Memory premises.

He again said he would continue the strike till death unless the authorities meet his demand.

"The authorities have taken necessary steps to hold registrar graduate election as per the direction of the High Court but did not take any step to hold Ducsu polls," he told The Daily Star.

Meanwhile on the third day, some university students joined him to express solidarity with his demand.

No DU official came to visit him.

No election to the Dhaka University Central Students' Union (Ducsu), which had played a pivotal role in many democratic movements, has been held since 1990.

at Dr Milon Chattar on the DMC premises.

Addressing the discussion, Awami League General Secretary Obaidul Quader said, "We did not form any ideological alliance with the autocrat [Ershad]. What we have formed is a strategic alliance."

Dr Milon is the symbol of democracy and he is being remembered each year with due respect, said Quader.

Meanwhile, at Milon Smriti Chattar (square) near TSC, BNP Senior Joint Secretary General Ruhul Kabir Rizvi told journalists that Dr Milon is an inspiration at a time when there is no democracy and freedom of expression in the country, and when a dreadful situation is prevailing in the country.

Jatiya Samajtantrik Dal, Communist Party of Bangladesh, Workers Party of Bangladesh, and family members of Dr Milon also placed wreaths at the grave.

prayer, the IO said Soheli was directly involved in Dipan's killing and he needs to be remanded so whereabouts of other people responsible for the killing could be known.

Dipan, 43, publisher of Jagriti Prokashoni, was hacked to death inside his office on the second floor of Aziz Cooperative Super Market in the capital's Shahbagh on October 31, 2015.

Later, his wife Razia Rahman filed the case accusing unknown persons.

In a confessional statement given before a magistrate on November 6, Soheli said he and seven others participated in the killing of blogger Avijit Roy, a Bangladesh-born US citizen who was hacked to death on Dhaka University campus as he along with his wife Rafida Ahmed Bonya was returning from the Ekushey book fair on that day in 2015.

Ansar Al Islam is said to be the Bangladesh chapter of al-Qaeda in Indian Subcontinent (AQIS).

Detectives have so far arrested three members of banned Ansarullah Bangla Team -- Moinul Hasan Shamim alias Sifat alias Samir alias Imran, Abdus Samad alias Abdus Sabur and Khairul Islam in the Dipan murder case. They confessed to the killing before magistrates on different dates.

children die from hunger," Penny said yesterday.

"This looks like ethnic cleansing. The Burmese military must end this inhumane violence and guarantee unrestricted humanitarian access so aid can reach those in need in Burma. Any return of families to their homes must be safe, voluntary and dignified."

"Global funding to support the Rohingya people will only meet urgent needs for the next 100 days -- we cannot turn our backs on those trapped in crisis," the minister said, adding, "Other countries must follow our lead and do even more to help children overcome the trauma of war, reunite them with their families and give a future to the next generation."
