

Food festival at Khazana's new address

Khazana is hosting the food festival 'Daawat-E-Kebab' at its Gulshan restaurant. The festival offers a dinner buffet with a vast range of mouthwatering vegetarian and non-vegetarian kebabs along with live 'chaat' counters. The unique gourmet event brings the authentic taste of legendary kebabs and Indian breads prepared by the visiting chef from India as well the in-house master chefs.

Some signature kababs in the dinner buffet spread will be Gilawat e Tawa, Taji Shahi Kebab, Aloo Tashkari, Kashundi Paneer tikka and many more.

This festival will run till November 29, 2017. For reservation, diners can call 8809846127 or +8801711476379

The best Momo-s from Tasty Tibet

A yummy dumpling and the traditional delicacy of Nepal-the Momo is well adopted by the foodies of Bangladesh. Every eatery that offers this has their own twist on this dish. Tasty Tibet, a Bangladesh - Singapore joint venture, however wants to keep it as close to the authentic recipe as possible.

In the kitchen, the Momos are made in an international standard hygienic central kitchen under the supervision of international chef & local staffs trained both in Nepal & Bangladesh.

All products are freshly processed in the central kitchen under supervision of internationally trained chefs. Fresh ingredients are outsourced from reputed suppliers and secret spices are outsourced from the highlands of Nepal.

Tasty Tibet has started by opening up shops in Banani, Gulshan & Bashundhara R/A for now. Over time, they will roll out a franchise model and extend all over Bangladesh.
