BRACU Residential Campus initiates cleanliness programme at National Memorial

BRAC University Residential Campus (Savar) took the initiative to start a programme in order to clean up the premises of the national monument. Each semester, approximately 100 to 150 students, faculty and officials participate in this unique programme. The main objective of the event is to make the students realise the spirit of patriotism and develop a sense of pride in their ability to contribute to their own country while taking responsibility and direct action towards positive change. Continuing this tradition in Fall 2017, the students of BRACU Residential Campus took part in this clean-up programme on November 17, 2017.

A total of 120 students along with the faculty and staff cleaned the National Memorial premises. At a certain point, general sightseers who went there to visit the site, were highly motivated by observing the action of BRACU students and joined in hand in hand with the students.
