TAREQUE MASUD'S DEATH

HC verdict on compensation tomorrow

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court is likely to finish tomorrow delivering verdict in a case seeking Tk 9.94 crore as compensation for the demise of filmmaker Tareque Masud in a 2011 road accident.

The bench of Justice Zinat Ara and Justice Kazi Md Ejarul Haque Akondo started announcing the judgement on Wednesday, Deputy Attorney General Israt Jahan told The Daily Star yesterday.

Cannes award winning filmmaker Tareque Masud and former ATN news CEO Mishuk Munier along with three others died when a bus collided with a microbus they were in on the Dhaka-Aricha highway in Manikganj on August 13, 2011.

The families of Tareque and Mishuk on February 13, 2012 filed two cases with district judge and Motor Accident Claim Tribunal in Manikganj, seeking compensation for the deaths.

Kashed Miah, Khokon Miah and Jahnagir Kabir, co-owners of the bus; Jamir Uddin, its driver; and the company, which insured the vehicle, were accused in the cases.

A Manikganj court sentenced Jamir Hossain to life imprisonment on February 22 this year.

Following two separate writ petitions, the HC on October 29, 2014 ruled that the HC, instead of the lower court, will now hold the trial of the two compensation cases.

Catherine Masud, wife of Tareque Masud, in her case, sought compensation for the loss of care, protection, nursing and affection of Tareque Masud and his family members, loss of dependency suffered by the family members,

The youth wing of BNP brought out a procession from Jimkhana ground, protesting an arrest warrant against BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia in two corruption cases. Around 10 people were reported to have been injured during police action that foiled the protest. The law enforcers said the demonstrators did not take prior permission for their programme on the road.

Shipon Banik, owner of a jewellery shop at Tanti Bazar, said though they have been in the business for generations, they are now facing a serious challenge to continue it.

He said 10 goldsmiths used to work for him before; he has only two goldsmiths now.

Tanmoy Karmakar, who has long been working at a jewellery shop at Baitul Mukarram market, said he is now training to be a driver in order to support his five-member family.

Nikhil Jadob, who used to work as a goldsmith for the past 20 years at Tanti Bazar, now sells vegetables to support his family.

"I started making jewellery when I was 12. I used to earn Tk 10,000 to 12,000 a month even seven to eight years back. Now it's difficult to earn even Tk 4,000 per month."

Graffiti demanding

Hence, all decisions made by the present DU senate were illegal.

Pledging their support to Walid's demand, they also threatened to wage a tougher movement if the authorities fail to hold the Ducus election.

Earlier, on Tuesday, several students as well as two teachers of the university expressed their solidarity with his demand.

The last election to Ducus, introduced in the 1922-23 session, was held on July 6 in 1990. The Ducus Executive Committee of 1990-91 was dissolved by the authorities on May 27, 1998.

UP member hacked in Pirojpur

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Pirojpur

Two men, including a union parishad (UP) member, were hacked at Mathbaria upazila in Pirojpur on Thursday night.

Ismail Hossain, 34, member of ward no-6 under Tikikata union, and Mohibullah, 32, a Dubai expatriate, were chatting at a tea stall in Bayishkura Bazar when some 10 youths, including Shamim, Jewel, Nantu, Rasel and Al Amin, suddenly hacked Ismail, said Md Rafikul Islam Ripan, Tikikata UP chairman.

They also hacked Mohibullah when he tried to save Ismail. Shamim launched the attack to take revenge as Ismail recently informed police about his drug and gambling business in the bazar area, Ripan added.

The attackers also demanded Tk 1 lakh as extortion money from Mohibullah some two months ago but he refused to pay the amount, he added.

The victims were shifted to Dhaka Medical College Hospital for better treatment yesterday afternoon. No case was filed, said police.
