

Kendall Jenner Fears Bella Hadid Would Be Hurt Again

Kendall Jenner is worried that Bella Hadid could get hurt since she is giving The Weeknd another chance. Bella Hadid and The Weeknd are rumored to be together again and Jenner is not happy with the news. Bella recently went on a trip to Bahamas with her closest friends including Kendall Jenner and that is where Jenner expressed her concerns for the youngest Hadid sister. Hadid's other friends also think that she is playing with fire because The Weeknd is famous for breaking hearts. Jenner does not believe in second chances, especially when it comes at the benefit of her closest friends. Bella seems confused about her decision since The Weeknd came to her and begged for forgiveness. It is speculated that they might be reunited soon.

Source: Internet

ADNAN SAMI Appears on Silver Screen with his Debut Film

Singer and music composer Adnan Sami is appearing on silver screen with his debut film Afghan: In Search of a Home. He will be shooting for this film in Afghanistan next year. The first poster has grabbed the viewers' attention on social media where Adnan is seen in a musician avatar, with vivid barriers in the backdrop. The film symbolizes what happens to culturally enriched countries in months of warfare, and how practice of arts is destroyed in the face of international hostility. The movie will be directed by Radhika Rao and Vinay Sapru, whose ancestors are from Afghanistan. It can be said that many personal experiences have helped in shaping the plot of this movie.

Source: Internet

Prince Harry and Meghan Markle to Have Baby Right Away

From what many news sources have stated, Meghan Markle's family wants her and Prince Harry to have a baby right away. While the fans of this couple are eagerly waiting for them to tie the knot in a royal splendor, Meghan's family is apparently looking forward to the next milestone. After the news of the royal couple's engagement broke, Meghan's family has been advising Harry and Megan to start serious family planning. "Everyone close to her is blown away by the romantic idea that a strong and confident woman from Los Angeles will be entering into the royal family," stated a new source. Meghan's mother is very particular about this matter and wants to become a grandmother as soon as possible.

Source: Internet

