

Gold worth Tk 20 lakh seized from Biman passenger

UNB, Dhaka

Customs Intelligence and Investigation Directorate (CIID) at Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport recovered gold bars and ornaments weighing around 406 grams from a passenger of Biman Bangladesh Airlines from Abu Dhabi yesterday.

The passenger is Saidur Rahman, of Brahmanbaria.

CIID officials said that on a tip-off, its officials started monitoring movement of Saidur Rahman just after the Biman flight landed around 11:00am.

When he was about to cross the green channel of the airport's customs, the CIID officials searched him and found the gold, said Dr Moinul Khan, director general of the CIID.

He kept three gold bars hidden inside his underwear, while the ornaments were found in his luggage. The gold bars and ornaments are worth Tk 20 lakh, said Moinul.

Iajuddin's death anniversary today

OUR CORRESPONDENT,

Munshiganj

Today is the fifth death anniversary of former president Professor Dr Iajuddin Ahmed.

He died at Bumrungrad International Hospital in Bangkok on this day in 2012 at the age of 81.

On the occasion, a milad mahfil has been arranged at President Professor Dr Iajuddin Ahmed Residential Model School and College in Munshiganj.

Iajuddin was a professor of soil science department at Dhaka University. He also assumed the office of chief adviser of the caretaker government at the end of 2006. His family has requested all to pray for the salvation of the departed soul.

ROAD OR DUMPSITE? Initially, broken metal road dividers were dumped on a corner of this road in the capital's Fakirapool area. Afterwards, damaged trash bins were added to the mix. Soon, locals apparently inspired by the act started throwing waste there. As the corner was eventually blocked to traffic due to the garbage, utilising the opportunity, rickshaw-van pullers also started parking their vehicles alongside. The photo was taken in front of Wasa office yesterday.

PLAN TO BUY DREAMLINER AIRCRAFT Biman seeks loan proposals

UNB, Dhaka

The national flag carrier Biman's dream to have the Boeing 787 Dreamliner aircraft in its fleet is now just a step away from reality.

Once Biman Bangladesh Airlines successfully wrap up the deals to get financing partners on board by early next year, its 13-strong fleet will be richer by two American long-haul Dreamliner 787-8, by November 2018.

And two more of these latest Boeing airplanes are also in the purchase pipeline, scheduled to be delivered to Biman by last quarter of 2019.

In a bid to ensure that Biman gets the deliveries on time, the airlines on November 29 floated "Request for Proposal" (RFP) seeking loan for financing of the delivery payments for the two Dreamliners.

Biman invited the RFP from reputed banks or financial institutions with experience of arranging and funding aircraft loans for financing of two 787-8 aircraft, popularly known as Dreamliner, scheduled to be delivered in August 2018 and November 2018.

Biman sought the proposals from prospective parties by January 28, 2018. It splits the loan arrangements into two categories -- senior loan and junior loan. The financing shall be in US dollars for a minimum 144 months term with quarterly payments of principal and interest for up to US$ 250 million. Aggregate amount of financing will be 80 percent of US$ 250 million. This loan will be called as senior loan.

It also said there can be an offer of 20 percent (US$ 50 million) of the total amount and it will be
