Protect Khan Jahan Ali Dighi: HC

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday directed the government to immediately take necessary steps to protect historic Khan Jahan Ali Dighi, a large pond in Bagerhat.

In response to a writ petition, the court also issued a ban on changing the size and shape of the Dighi through earth filling for six months, as local influential people -- Zakir Hossain Mridha, Shekh Maruf Hossain and Kazi Mahbubur Rahman -- allegedly started filling the water body in their own interest.

The HC also issued a rule asking the authorities concerned of the government and the trio to explain as to why their failure to protect, recover and maintain the Dighi should not be declared illegal and against public interest.

Bangladesh Environmental Lawyers Association (Bela) filed the writ petition.

DU student hurt in ceiling collapse

DU CORRESPONDENT

A female student residing in Shamsunnahar Hall of the University of Dhaka was injured as a chunk of plaster fell from the ceiling on her right arm yesterday.

The victim, a second year student of Islamic Studies Department, was in the shower at that time.

She was given primary medical treatment at the University Medical Centre.

Outraged resident students alleged the hall authorities did not pay heed to repeated requests for renovation.

Supriya Shaha, provost of the hall, said, "I have talked with the injured student and the hall authorities will take care of her treatment."

49 receive Meena Media Award

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Forty-nine professionals yesterday received the 13th Meena Media Award 2017, organised by Unicef, for their contributions towards promoting child rights.

Rajan Bhattacharya of Bangla daily Dainik Janakantha won the first prize and Mirza Shakil of The Daily Star, secured the third prize in "reporting category" of print media.

Kawser Soheli of Masranga Television, won first prize in "visual reporting" while Santa Rani of Radio Sarabela received first prize in "radio reporting". Information Minister Hasanul Haq Inu handed over the awards.

accepted the candidacy of Kawsar and allowed him to vie for mayoral post.

The Sonali Bank the same day submitted a petition to the returning officer to cancel his candidature, but the petition was rejected. Then, the bank appealed to the divisional commissioner of Rangpur challenging the returning officer's decision. But the divisional commissioner also rejected the appeal on November 30. Recently, the bank filed the petition challenging the legality of divisional commissioner's order, added Kawsar's lawyer Bodruddoza.

Apan Jewellers owners get bail

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday granted bail to Apan Jewellers' owners Dildar Ahmed, Gulzar Ahmed and Azad Ahmed in three money laundering cases, paving way for the release of the latter two from jail.

The bench of Justice M Enayetur Rahim and Justice Shahidul Karim granted them bail after hearing their petitions.

However, Dildar cannot get released as the HC kept his bail petitions in two other cases in waiting for hearing.

On August 12, Customs Intelligence and Investigation Directorate sued the three. Three separate cases were lodged with Dhanmondi, Ramna and Uttara police stations while two cases with Gulshan Police Station.

According to the case statements, the owners imported around 15 mounds of gold and diamonds by "dodging tax".

Dildar Ahmed Selim, father of the double-rape case accused Shafat Ahamed, has been made an accused in three cases while Gulzar and Azad in three separate cases following the directives of National Board of Revenue.

They were sent to jail on October 28 upon surrender.

Advocate AM Aminuddin, Barrister Sheikh Fazle Noor Taposh and Barrister Mehedi Hasan Chowdhury appeared for the accused petitioners, while Attorney General Mahbubey Alam represented the state.

taken to unknown places and then tortured and murdered. Their bodies were later dumped at Rayerbazar, Mirpur and several other killing fields in Dhaka. Sensing an imminent defeat, the Pakistani forces and local collaborators like Al-Badr, Al-Shams and Razakar forces committed the murders aiming to annihilate the country's intelligentsia.

President Abdul Hamid paid tributes to the martyrs by placing a wreath at the Martyred Intellectuals' Memorial in Mirpur.

Prime Minister's Military Secretary Maj Gen Mia Md Jainul Abedin placed a wreath there on behalf of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina who was abroad. BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia did the same at the memorial.

Besides, different socio-cultural and political organisations observed the day with various programmes, including seminars, discussions and placing of wreaths.

standing committee member Goyeshwar Chandra Roy for raising question on why the martyred intellectuals stayed in their respective houses during the war despite life threat.

Quoting her mother, Nuzhat said, "My mother had repeatedly requested my father [Alim Chowdhury] to go into hiding during the war. But my father always argued if he went into hiding, who would treat the injured freedom fighters and who would perform activities from inside the country."

Nuzhat, also an associate professor of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujib Medical University, said downplaying the role of martyred intellectuals is the continuing process of distorting the history of Liberation War.

Martyred intellectual Dr Fazle Rabbi's daughter Nasrin Sultana and BMA leaders also spoke in the programme presided over by Dr Mostafa Jalal Mohiuddin.
