

HALDAA

Continues to Win Hearts in its 3rd Week

Haldaa, a movie that talks about the struggles of Bangladeshi fishermen's lives, has been winning millions of hearts since its release. The plot revolves around the social, cultural and economic aspects of a family that constantly tries to accommodate itself within the prescribed life style of the fishermen. This film created a buzz among the movie goers of Bangladesh for its intricate detailed work on plot, settings and story. The acclaimed movie critics are showing their heartfelt gratitude towards Tauquir Ahmed, the director of Haldaa, both on social and print media. Celebrated filmmaker Amitabh Reza Chowdhury marked Haldaa to be the humanitarian deed of an honest Bangla cinema. This film has embarked on its 3rd week with validation and appreciation from Bangladeshi audience.

TRIBUTES POUR IN FOR

TWO BELOVED SOULS

Two of the nation's most beloved individuals left us recently-Bari Siddiqui on 24th November and Mayor Annisul Huq on 1st December. Demise of these two souls is an irreplaceable loss of the country. People expressed their love and respect for the departed souls on social and print media. Tears took the form of eulogy composed by both the young and old. Bari Siddiqui's songs, interviews and solo shows have aired on various television channels and have been viewed thousands of times on YouTube after his unfortunate demise. Despair over Mayor Annisul Huq's untimely death has been all over social media for the past two weeks. However, the youth has resolved to stand by the morals and ethics of everyone's favourite Mayor.

Pori Moni in 'Antarjala' on Victory Day

Pori Moni's victory has doubled up with the release of her new film Antarjala yesterday. The movie was released in 175 cinema halls at a time across Bangladesh. Such a huge premier made the movie catchier and striking to the viewers. Zayed Khan, Pori Moni, Joy Chowdhury, Moumita Mou, Miju Ahmed and many other prominent actors have worked in this film. Antarjala is directed by the celebrated director Malek Afsary and produced by Z K Movies. Pori Moni in one of her interviews said that she was confident about her viewers' positive reaction to this movie. With laughter she added, "We will give them their money back if they do not like it." Zayed Khan also shared his thoughts on this film. He commented, "Antarjala has a very eventful plot. I tried to sink into my character as best as possible. The plot revolves around the true story of the eminent Bangladeshi actor Manna. The movie has its unique features."
