

BACKLOG OF CASES AT LOWER COURTS SC seeks statistics of pending cases

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
The Supreme Court administration yesterday sought the statistics of the backlog of civil and criminal cases pending for five years and more than five years with all the lower courts across the country till December 31 last year.
All the district and sessions judges have been requested to send the statistic of pending cases to the concerned office of the High Court Division by 2pm today.
The statistics have been called upon for the Law Minister Anisul Huq to deliver a statement in this regard during the question-answer session in the parliament.
Sanjia Sarwar, assistant registrar (bench officer) of the High Court Division issued a notice to this effect under the instruction from the SC authorities.

The capital city witnessed chaotic traffic congestion yesterday as the Rajarbagh road remained closed during the ongoing "Police Week 2018". The traffic condition got worse as vehicles could not move due to parking of cars on almost half of the road. The photo was taken in Motijheel.

Serve, not harass President asks police

UNB, Dhaka
President Abdul Hamid yesterday directed the police to ensure maximum services without any harassment as the people choose police as their last resort.
"The peace-loving people in this country usually do not go to police stations. They go to police after they become very helpless," Hamid said at the annual dinner, arranged marking the Police Week 2018 in Bangladesh Auditorium in the capital's Rajarbagh Police Lines.
It is the constitutional right of the people to get police service; it is neither a favour nor a charity, he added.
The people will get full confidence in police and consider them as their friends when they will get expected services, he added.
Terming Bangladesh Police an old and traditional institution, he urged every police member to work with sincerity.
The police has also important roles to play in the country's socio-economic development by maintaining law and order providing protection to public lives and property and establishing the rule of law.

gazette notification directing all marriage registrars against conducting any marriage between Bangladeshi nationals and Rohingyas.
He prayed to the HC to stay the notification and allow his son Shoeb and Rafisa to record their marriage officially, Deputy Attorney General Motaheer Hossain Sazu said.
As per the Foreigners Act 1964, it is an offence if a Bangladeshi national gets married to any person from a "restricted area", DAG Sazu told The Daily Star.
The rohingya refugee camps inside Bangladesh fall within the definition of "restricted areas", he added.
Following the law, the government on October 25 last year issued the gazette notification asking the marriage registrars to remain alert and stop such marriages.
The notification issued by the ministry revealed that rate of marriages between Bangladeshi nationals and Rohingyas has remarkably increased, particularly in Cox's Bazar, Bandarban, Rangamati and Chittagong.
As some dishonest marriage registrars are also involved in this practice, the notification threatened of tougher actions against those who carry out any marriage between Bangladeshi and Rohingyas.

On the day, in the name of talking, Mizanur took her to the "300 feet road" area where he tortured her, Morium alleged.
Morium was later taken to the police officer's Bailey Road residence where a doctor, in the name of treating her, injected her with something that made her unconscious.
The next afternoon, she found her in Mizanur's nightwear, Morium alleged while talking to the media.
As she tried to commit suicide afterwards, Mizanur called her mother Queen Talukder on the phone and requested her to come to Dhaka from Bogra. Morium was kept confined to the house until her mother arrived on July 17.
Mizanur apologised for his misdeeds and proposed to marry Morium. As Morium and her mother rejected the proposal, Mizanur threatened to kill them brandishing his fire-arm. At one stage, Mizanur married Morium with Tk 50 lakh as alimony, said Morium. Queen has submitted complaints to the Prime Minister's Office, the home ministry and the Police Headquarters describing the incident. In her complaint, Queen mentioned that Mizanur started living with Morium in his Bailey Road residence after the marriage.
Some days later, he rented a separate house in Lalmatia for her daughter, saying that his first wife was coming home from Canada, she said. The mother alleged that Mizanur later started torturing her daughter and pressurised for divorce. As the family tried to collect the copy of the marriage certificate, the case was filed with Ramna Police Station accusing her of ransacking his house. Police arrested Morium on December 12.
Despite repeated attempts, Mizanur did not receive phone calls. He even did not reply to a text message. Moments later his phone was found switched off. However, he denied the allegations while talking to the media earlier.

Youth arrested for 'gang raping' schoolgirl in N'ganj

OUR CORRESPONDENT, N'ganj
Police arrested a youth in Madinabagh area of Rugganj upazila in Narayanganj yesterday two days after he and his accomplices had allegedly gang raped a schoolgirl.
The arrestee -- Maruf Hossain Munna, 20, son of late Jahangir Hossain -- is from Rugganj.
The 15-year-old girl filed a case with Rugganj Police Station accusing five people.
Citing the statement of the case, Officer-in-Charge Ismail Hossain said the girl had a romantic relationship with a youth named Shahidul Islam.
On Saturday, Shahidul asked her to meet him at Tetlabo Bazar, said Ismail.
When the girl went there, Shahidul and several of his accomplices took her to Maruf's residence in Kandapara area by a battery-run auto-rickshaw, said the OC. Later, they gang raped her there, he added.
