

HC order on halting BTRC's 4G spectrum auction stayed

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Supreme Court yesterday stayed a High Court order that halted the auctioning of 4G spectrum for the telecommunication industry of Bangladesh.

Chamber Judge of the SC's Appellate Division Justice Syed Mahmud Hossain came up with the order after a brief hearing on a petition filed by the Bangladesh Telecommunication Regulatory Commission (BTRC) seeking a stay on the order.

He also sent the petition to the full bench for its hearing on next Sunday.

Earlier in the day, the HC stayed effectiveness of two BTRC circulars inviting applications for the 4G spectrum auctioning. The bench of Justice Naima Haider and Justice Zafar Ahmed passed the order following a writ petition filed by a wireless internet provider.

It also sought explanation from the authorities concerned of the BTRC and media for news due to authenticity of its source. Regarding child-friendliness of news contents, the study found that 65 percent of the readers believe that the contents are prepared without considering children. Of them, 24 percent thought children are considered sometimes while 11 percent thought it is done most of the time. Speaking as the chief guest, Information Minister Hasanul Haq Inu said, "News on children and women must get the priority." He called upon journalists to practice ethical journalism and work for the people's wellbeing. National Human Rights Commission Chairman Kazi Rezaul Haque said the media should always play a responsible and careful role during publishing any news since the commission collects news items on human rights violations from the media. Former DU vice chancellor AAMS Arefin Siddique said reading newspapers could be added as a course of study in schools. PIB Director General Shah Alamgir and UNB Executive Editor Reaz Ahmad also spoke among others.

As the footpath is dug up for a "development project", two pedestrians walk on the busy road while a speeding bus passes by. In such scenario, fatal accident can happen in a fraction of a second. Moreover, there is no sign warning the approaching vehicles of the trench right beside the road. In addition, roots of the trees beside the road get exposed as the soil has been removed. As a result, some of the trees died, as said by locals. The photo was taken at Uttara Sector 4 in the capital yesterday.

UNB, Dhaka
Expressing concern at surveillance of cybercrime, Transparency International Bangladesh yesterday said the misuse of surveillance of cybercrime can lead to the risk of curbing freedom of speech and expression. TIB, however, said initiatives for the formation of specialised police units for surveillance of cybercrime are timely and essential. In a statement, TIB Executive Director Dr Iftekharuzzaman said, "The news published in the media has revealed that the

TK 21CR TAX DODGING ACC sues United Hospital MD

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
The Anti-Corruption Commission (ACC) yesterday filed a case against managing director of United Hospital Faridur Rahman Khan for dodging tax worth Tk 21.44 crore. The case, filed by ACC's deputy director Mahbul Alam with Gulshan Police Station, also charged councillor of the then Dhaka City Corporation (DCC) Rahima Begum for assisting Faridur in dodging tax. According to the FIR, the construction of a hospital at plot-15 of Gulshan-2 was completed on August 24, 2006 and it began operation. In 2007, the name of the hospital was changed to United Hospital and Faridur became the new owner. The then deputy tax officer of DCC Nasir Uddin inspected the hospital and evaluated its annual value at Tk 29.38 crore. DCC issued a notice to the hospital authorities on August 26, 2007 fixing its trimester holding tax at Tk 88.15 lakh from August 24, 2006. Faridur applied to the assessment review board (ARB) against the tax rate on September 12, 2007.
