

Ban the short film against women: ASK

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Ain O Salish Kendra (ASK) in a statement yesterday demanded banning of a short film inciting discrimination against women and prosecution of its makers.

The ASK also strongly condemned and protested the attempt to incite discrimination against women by the makers of the short film that went viral on the social media.

Even though smoking in public is a punishable offence for both men and women according to the "Smoking and Tobacco Products Usage (Control) Act 2005 (Amendment) 2013", the film makers in their short film "Boishomyo" secretly recorded only women who were smoking in public places.

The film contains derogatory remarks against smoker women and encouraged the audience to spread the video on the social media in order to stop women from smoking, the ASK said.

Such discriminatory acts against women contradict the country's laws and the

MPO-LISTED INSTITUTIONS Teachers continue hunger strike

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The teachers and employees of MPO-enlisted academic institutions continued their hunger strike for the third consecutive day yesterday demanding nationalisation of all private secondary and higher secondary educational institutions.

At least 67 of them fell sick so far, while three were hospitalised yesterday. However, the teachers said they would continue the protest until their demand is met.

Several hundred teachers and employees of the institutions have been continuing their strike in front of the capital's Jatiya Press Club since January 15.

Before that, under the banner of "Besharkari Sikkha Jatiyakaran Liaison Forum", they started a sit-in programme from January 10.

Teachers and employees are deprived of proper salary increment and allowances although their workload is same as the government institutions, said Rofiqul Islam, joint secretary of the forum.

Quality of education will increase after the nationalisation, said Rofiqul, also a teacher of a secondary school in Comilla.

11 MYMENSINGH MEN ICT's decision on indictment Feb 14

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The International Crimes Tribunal (ICT) yesterday fixed February 14 to decide whether it will frame charges against 11 Mymensingh men for allegedly committing crimes during the Liberation War in 1971.

The three-member tribunal led by Justice Md Shahinur Islam fixed the date and kept in record a petition filed by an accused to give testimony as an approver.

For the first time in the history of war crimes trial in Bangladesh, accused

SERVING PEOPLE Lone consumer rights body struggling

UNB, Dhaka

Though its journey began seven years back aiming to protect consumer rights, the Directorate of National Consumer Rights Protection (DNCRP) has failed to make people aware about its own activities.

However, it is now planning to build seven software applications to reach out to people, and give the consumers an easy option to lodge their complaints through their mobile phones.

The DNCRP authorities said they are also going to launch a vigorous campaign to make consumers aware of their rights.

"People are still in the dark about the activities of the DNCRP... many don't even know the existence of such a government body," said Ashis Kumar Dey, general secretary of the National Committee to Protect Shipping, Roads and Railways.

The government should take effective measures, especially media campaigns, to make people aware.

Chairman of the Institute of Water and Environment Eng M Enamul Haque alleged that due to a lack of proper accountability of top DNCRP officials, the organisation failed to get a desired response from people.

Contacted, Ghulam Rahman, president of Consumers Association of Bangladesh (CAB), said most consumers are yet to know that they can get remedy after lodging complaints with the DNCRP offices.

He also thinks the DNCRP cannot perform well due to inadequate funds and manpower.

Contacted, DNCRP Director General Shafiqul Islam Laskar claimed that they have been trying to create awareness among consumers about their rights, despite having limitations, including inadequate manpower and funds.

The DNCRP is getting a huge number of complaints every day as the consumers are now very much aware of their rights, he added. Laskar said they have already sought funds from the government to carry out an awareness campaign.

said the statement. Both the ministers expressed their strong resolve to continue with the strong bilateral engagements between the neighbours.

Mahmood and Swaraj discussed all the aspects of bilateral relations and took stock of the progress following the 4th Joint Consultative Council (JCC) meeting held in Dhaka in October last year.

"Both of them observed that people-to-people contact is the fundamental aspect to any bilateral relations and noted that visits by various strata of people from both countries are on the rise," said the statement.

The Bangladesh minister is visiting India to attend the 3rd Raisina Dialogue, the premier foreign policy initiative of India's external affairs ministry, where he is expected to make the keynote speech at the concluding session at the Taj Palace Hotel on January 18. Bangladesh High Commissioner to India Syed Muazzem Ali accompanied Mahmood Ali during the meeting.
