SAMUEL HOQUE'S S/S18 JACKETS, AND WHY YOU GOTTA HAVE THEM

If you need some fashion inspiration to warm you up during the cold wave sweeping across the city, look no further than Samuel Hoque's Spring/Summer 2018 collection, which includes variations on his greatest hits and innovations so far, and two new standout additions in his stellar line-up of bomber jackets.

BOLT FROM THE BLUE

There are bomber jackets, and then there's the Samuel Hoque Bomber. Samuel gives a well-loved alpha male staple a stylish update, with that 'desi' twist that is fast becoming one of his iconic signatures. Constructed out of an eye-popping Ocean Blue muslin, lined with satin, with zippered details, this breezy number will ensure no one's looking at anyone else when you walk into the room wearing this. Muslin might be a difficult material to cut and shape, but rest assured that with the Style Sanctum bespoke services, you can get one made to measure just for you.

EBONY ELEGANCE

Jamdani, another timeless fabric, finds its way into the spring collection in the form of this dressy bomber. Stark black jamdani knitted out with zari work for a little sparkle, with a luxe satin backing, this is a jacket you take on a night out of partying. The lightweight fabric makes it perfect for the transitional weather, all the way to summer, so invest in this one for the whole season.

These are just two new items to appear in the startling collection, which promises light, fun, casual chic that you can dress up or down as the occasion merits. The Style Sanctum motto is "Good clothes open doors" and Samuel Hoque's S/S18 delivers in spades.
