

Accolades Galore at the 63rd Jio Filmfare Awards!

Ever since the event was held on 20 January, 2018, the 63rd Jio Filmfare Awards was the talk of the town all week. Hosted at the NSCI Dome in Worli, Mumbai, this prestigious award ceremony had grabbed the attention of Bollywood fans everywhere, and for obvious reasons, as everyone awaited their favorite stars being named the best of the best. Aside from Irrfan Khan and Hindi Medium grabbing the "Best Actor in a Leading Role (Male)" and "Best Film" awards respectively, Vidya Balan made a splash once again by winning the "Best Actor in a Leading Role (Female)" award for the film Tumhari Sulu. This was her sixth Filmfare Award and it certainly proved the caliber of an actor Vidya Balan has established herself to be. As for the "Critics' Awards", which were given to names different from the main awards this year, were: Newton (Critics' Award for Best Film), Rajkumar Rao for Trapped (Critics' Award for Best Male Actor) and Zaira Wasim for Secret Superstar (Critics' Award for Best Female Actor). Among other awards given were: "Best Director" to Ashwiny Iyer Tiwari for Bareilly Ki Barfi, "Best Dialogue" to Hitesh Kewalya for Shubh Mangal Saavdhan and "Best Original Story" to Amit Masurkar for Newton.

Source: Times of India

Irrfan Khan nabs Filmfare Award for Best Actor!

The 63rd Jio Filmfare Awards held last week was a star-studded event of joyous celebrations. Many claimed that deserving actors have won the awards this time, and a testament to such a claim was Irrfan Khan winning the Best Actor in a Leading Role (Male) Award for his role in the film Hindi Medium. Irrfan Khan's acting has always been well-received by fans, but this time, even the critics joined the fanfare in praising the acclaimed actor's fantastic performance. Regarding this achievement, Irrfan Khan stated in Twitter that Hindi Medium is "a story that is told from the heart" and that it spreads the message of "want and sincerity to inculcate and encourage change". He further thanked the audience and the entire team of Hindi Medium for being a part of his journey. It is to be noted that Hindi Medium also won the Best Film Award the same night!

Source: Hindustan Times

Ranveer Singh's Tribute to Bollywood!

Ranveer Singh has always been known for, among other things, a unique fashion sense. In the 63rd Jio Filmfare Awards held last week at Mumbai, he paid a fantastic tribute to Bollywood in the form of a special set of suit and pants. Adorned with the banners of classic films he grew up with, this one-of-a-kind attire caught everyone's attention at the award ceremony, and definitely proved how passionate of a fan Ranveer Singh is of his national film industry. "A good majority of the films have cult popularity even today," said Nitasha Gaurav, Ranveer's personal stylist. She further stated, "It contains posters from Ranveer's favorite films from the 80s and 90s, and I think the result was truly unique!"

Source: Times of India

