Train hits stuck truck

Rail communication halts, hours-long tailback on Dhaka-Tangail highway

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Tangail

An inter-city train got out of order after hitting a stranded fertiliser-laden truck on Dherua level crossing in Mirzapur upazila early yesterday.

The consequent suspension of train movements on Joydevpur-Bangabandhu Bridge route and hours-long tailback on Dhaka-Tangail highway caused suffering to thousands of passengers. Dhaka-bound Dhumketu Express train from Rajshahi got out of order at the level crossing as it hit the stranded truck at 3:40am, said Nazmul Huda, stationmaster of Mirzapur railway station. "A few minutes earlier, the truck had got out of order on the level crossing and its driver and helper got off shortly before arrival of the train. Seeing the train, the onduty gatemen showed signal to stop it but the train driver might not have seen it due to dense fog," he said.

"Hit by the train, the fertiliser-laden truck pushed a nearby standing truck before it fell into a roadside ditch. An employee of the standing truck was injured. The accident could be avoided if the news of the truck's getting stuck on the level crossing was conveyed in time," he added.

Another train took the out of order train to Mirzapur station at 6:35am. Later a light engine from Kamalapur in Dhaka came there at 7:40am and took the train to the capital, railway sources said.

Dhaka-bound Nilsagar Express train from Nilphamari and Dhaka-bound Ekota Express from Dinajpur, which got stuck at Mirzapur and Mohera railway stations due to the accident, resumed their journey at 8:05am and 9:00am respectively, they added.

After the accident, hundreds of vehicles got stuck on Dhaka-Tangail highway on the 50-kilometre stretch from Chandra in Gazipur to Elenga in Tangail, said Shahadat Hossain Selim, traffic inspector in Mirzapur.

Although vehicular movement resumed through the level crossing after removal of the out of order train from the track around 6:30am, the vehicles were seen moving on the highway at a snail's pace till 2:00pm, he added.

Sohag Miah, driver of a Dhaka-bound potato-laden truck from Bogra, said his vehicle got stuck on the tailback at Elenga at 4:00am and reached Mirzapur bypass after five hours, although it does not need more than one hour in normal situation.

Mymensingh people continue protest

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Mymensingh

Local people, including teachers and students, yesterday formed a human chain protesting drug peddling and abuse in Khagdahor area of the town.

Drug peddling has been continuing in the area for long and recently, the menace has increased sharply, affecting the people, especially youth, at an alarming rate, said the speakers at the rally.

Drug peddling on rise Black Bengal goat rearing gets popular in Lalmonirhat

S DILIP ROY, Lalmonirhat

Black Bengal variety of goat is gaining popularity among the breeders in the district as the she-goat give birth to up to five kids twice a year.

Goat breeders are highly interested in rearing Black Bengal variety, but many of them are upset as the variety is not available everywhere, farmers said. Azizul Islam, 46, a goat breeder of Uttar Saptana village in Sadar upazila, said he bought a Black Bengal variety she-goat from his relative a year ago. "The goat has given birth to five kids and I have decided to rear all of them instead of selling them," he said.

Amena Begum, 38, of the same village, said she has been rearing Black Bengal variety goat for the last three years and has been earning Tk 20,000 to Tk 22,000 by selling them every year. "Many interested goat breeders come to me for buying Black Bengal variety goat at high price," she added.

village in Hatibandha upazila said two bighas of land and built a tinhe got a Black Bengal variety shegoat under Poverty Mitigation Scheme in 2003, and the goat brought a big change in his life. "Now, I am owner of 25 goats of shed house with the money I got from selling goats," he said.

Saberul Islam, 48, of Kulaghat village in Sadar upazila said he is interested in rearing Black Bengal able. "I rear other varieties of goat, but I get only two kids once a year," he said.

Hatibandha Upazila Livestock Officer Babul Biswas told this correspondent that Black Bengal variety goats are better than any other variety as breeders get high prices for them. "We provide advice to the breeders on how to rear this variety properly and also provide treatment free of cost," he added.

District Livestock Officer Dr Nasir Uddin Khan told this correspondent that 25,000 Black Bengal variety she-goats were distributed among ultra-poor families under Poverty Mitigation Scheme in the district between the years 2002 and 2005, but the scheme is inoperative now. "If anyone is interested in rearing this variety of goat he/she can contact Black Bengal variety goat breeders in many villages. If they fail, they can come to us and we will help them to get this variety of goat," variety goat but it is not avail- he added.

Deer hides, venison seized

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Bagerhat

Bangladesh Coast Guard recovered deer hides, heads and venison from Jhonjhoniya canal area adjacent to the Sundarbans Kalabogi forest office on Tuesday.

Bangladesh Coast Guard West Zone (Mongla) Operations Officer Lieutenant Abdullah-Al-Mahmud said, on secret information, a team raided the area and recovered two deer hides, two heads of deer and 15 kg of venison around 3:00am.

However, none was arrested in this connection, he said.

The deer hides, heads and venison were later handed over to Kalabogi forest office.

Rickshaw puller electrocuted

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Mymensingh

A man was electrocuted at Fatehpur village in Phulpur upazila of the district yesterday.

The victim, Monnas Ali, 35, a rickshaw puller, was son of Tofazzal Hossain. Monnas, father of two children, was electrocuted when he came in contact with a snapped electric wire near a pond, said Phulpur Police Station Officer-in-Charge AKM Mahbub Alam.

Hearing screams, neighbours rushed to the spot and took him to Phulpur Upazila Health Complex where the doctors declared him dead.
