

Two 'robbers' beaten dead in Savar, B'baria

STAR COUNTRY DESK

Villagers beat two unidentified men to death suspecting them of robbers in Savar and Brahmanbaria yesterday.

An alleged robber aged about 30 was beaten to death by a mob in Nalam area of Savar on the outskirts of the capital early yesterday.

Quoting locals, police said five to six masked robbers entered a house owned by one Siddikur Rahman in Nalam area around 3:30am. Sensing the robbers' presence, the residents raised a hue and cry for help. Locals came forward and caught one of the robbers after a chase. Later, they gave him a good beating, leaving him dead on the spot.

Ashulia Police Station Officer-in-Charge Abdul Awal said they were trying to find out the identity of the robber and arrest his accomplices.

The body was sent to Dhaka Medical College Hospital morgue for autopsy.

Meanwhile, another suspected robber was killed after a good beating by the villagers in Mulgram union under Kasba upazila of Brahmanbaria early yesterday.

Identity of the robber aged around 35 could not be known immediately.

Witnesses said a gang of 10 to 12 robbers tried to loot valuables from passengers after blocking a CNC-run-auto-rickshaw in Raitola area of Tinkhpeer-Bitghar regional road.

Villagers caught one of the robbers while they were trying to flee after the passengers raised hue and cry seeking help.

The villagers beat him to death on the spot.

Our Savar and Brahmanbaria correspondents contributed to the reports.

Boro saplings sell at high price

S DILIP ROY, Lalmonirhat

Taking advantage of a shortage of Boro saplings, caused by damage due to prolonged cold and dense fog, a section of traders in the district are doing brisk business by selling saplings at high price.

Farmers are forced to buy saplings at high rate for farming Boro crop, and they are upset over the price hike this year. Now, one bundle of 50 to 55 saplings is being sold at Tk 5 to Tk 6, while it cost Tk 2 to Tk 3 last year.

"We purchase one bundle of saplings from the farmers at Tk 3 to Tk

4 and sell them in the local market," said sapling trader Nur Islam, 44, of Durakuti Haat in Sadar upazila. "We collected saplings easily last year, but we are facing difficulties in collecting them this year as they were affected by fog and cold," he added.

"Last year, I sold 500 bundles of Boro saplings for Tk 1,000, but I purchased 100 bundles for Tk 600 this year," said Dhaniram Chandra Barmon, 56, of Kodalkhata village in Sadar upazila. "I have already completed farming Boro on 12 bighas this season, while it was 10 bighas the last year," he said.

Shamsul Alam, 52, of Shalmara village in Aditarni upazila, said he purchased 200 bundles of Boro saplings for Tk 1,200 from Durakuti Haat on Saturday for planting them on his one bigha of land. "I purchased saplings from the market at high rate as some of my saplings were affected in the seedbed due to prolonged fog and cold," he said, adding that he has prepared eight bighas for farming Boro this year.

Haradhon Chandra Barman, 63, of Chandrapur village in Kaliganj upazila, said his Boro saplings on 12 decimals were not affected as he protected them by covering them with polythene at night. "After fulfilling the target of farming Boro on 10 bighas, I earned Tk 2,500 more by selling saplings," he said.

District Department of Agriculture Extension Deputy Director Bidhubhushon Roy told this correspondent that there is no crisis of Boro saplings for farming on the targeted 52,000 hectares in the district. "Some unscrupulous traders are selling saplings at high rate, saying there is a crisis of saplings," he added.

Traders at Durakuti Haat in Sadar upazila of Lalmonirhat are selling Boro saplings at high prices, showing damage of saplings due to unfavourable weather as the reason for the price hike. The picture was taken recently.

Challenged woman raped

Some influential people take away the rapist

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Faridpur

A speech and hearing impaired young woman was raped allegedly by a middle-aged man at a wheat field in Bromonkanda village under Bhanga upazila of the district on Wednesday afternoon.

The accused is Inal Sheikh, 42, of the village in the upazila, said Bhanga police.

Locals said Inal forcefully took the 22-year-old woman of the village to the field in the area around 4:00pm. He later raped her.

Hearing the screams of the woman, the villagers rushed to the spot, rescued the victim and caught Inal red-handed.

But at one stage, some local influential people, led by the family members of Inal's in-laws' house, took him away from the captivity of the mob.

Later, the victim's mother filed a rape case with Bhanga Police Station under Women and Children Repression Prevention Act, said Miraz Hossain, officer-in-charge of the police station.

The woman was sent to Faridpur Medical College Hospital for medical test, said the OC.
