

Handcrafted chic

Accessorizing is the element that can make or break an outfit, regardless of it being a thrift store steal or haute couture. Contemporary modern jewellery may have its seasons, but terracotta jewellery has kept its place on the Bengali fashion vista from time immemorial. From modern fashionistas to those looking for traditional touches, these detailed, handmade trinkets never miss their spot. This edition of Star Lifestyle focuses on terracotta jewellery and how this transcending jewellery can be incorporated into your style array – from pulling off a seasonal look to making it your personal fashion statement, terracotta jewellery can redefine your style altogether. For some striking, yet most eco-friendly jewellery accessories, flip to the centre to see how you can incorporate terracotta jewellery into your fashion repertoire this falgun.
