ATTACK ON JOURNOS AT SYLHET COURT

Names of four main accused dropped from charge sheet

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

In the case filed over attacking two journalists by alleged Awami League men in Sylhet court area in January, police have submitted a charge sheet dropping the names of four prime accused, much to the surprise of the complainant.

On Tuesday, Sub-inspector Hadiul Islam of Kotwali Police Station, also investigation officer (IO) of the case, submitted the charge sheet to Sylhet Metropolitan Magistrate's Court.

But names of four prime accused were dropped from the case, according to the charge sheet. The Daily Star has obtained a copy of it.

journalist of the daily Jugantor, were injured in an attack allegedly by followers of Liaquat Ali, general secretary of Jaintipur upazila Awami League, in Sylhet court area on January 25.

Liaquat was denied bail in a murder case at a Sylhet court that day. When the journalists were recording video footages and taking photos of Liaquat and 29 others while they were being taken to jail, around 50 followers of Liaquat attacked them, and also broke their cameras, said witnesses.

Following that, the next day, a case was filed accusing Liaquat Ali, Shamim Ahmed, Foyej Ahmed Babar, Jewel Arman, Hossain Ahmed, Najrul and 15 other unnamed persons.

On February 2, the court granted two-day remand for Liaquat Ali, the prime accused of the case.

Regarding the charge sheet, the complainant, Nirananda Paul, said the IO pressed the charge sheet without talking to him.

Contacted, the IO brushed aside the allegation. He said he had spoken to the complainant.

The names of Liaquat, Foyej, Shamim and Hossain were dropped as their involvement was not found during investigation, the IO added.

Gousul Hossain, officer-in-charge of Kotwali Police Station, also said the IO pressed the charge sheet after taking Nirananda's consent.

However, Bappa Gosh Chowdhury, former vice-president of Sylhet Press Club, said the police are cooking up a

Coast guard to recruit own manpower soon

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Bangladesh Coast Guard will soon start recruiting its own manpower, Home Minister Asaduzzaman Khan Kamal said yesterday.

Since its inception 23 years ago, on February 14 in 1995, the paramilitary force has been in operation with officers and sailors on deputation from the Bangladesh Navy.

The home minister made the announcement regarding the recruitment plan of the government while speaking as the chief guest at the 23rd founding anniversary of the coast guard at its headquarters in the capital's Agargaon.

A proposal for the recruitment of coast guard's own manpower is being processed, said Coast Guard Assistant Director (intelligence) Lt Commander Abdullah Al Maruf.

Once the recruitment proposal is approved, all the 142 officers and 2,397 sailors, currently working on deputation from the navy, will be replaced with new recruits in phases. Some navy officers, however, will be permanently posted in the coast guard, said coast guard officials.

The minister during the programme said smuggling of narcotics and other contraband goods through the waterways has almost come down to zero, thanks to the efficiency of the coast guard. The force's performance has been impressive in protecting the mother hilsha.

Earlier, the programme started with a colourful parade performed by the members tion schedule without disposing of the problems.

Mentioning the elections to Comilla and Rangpur cities, he however, said, "So far, it hasn't done bad."

Secretary of Shushashoner Jannoy Nagorik (Shujan) Dr Badiul Alam Majumder said the EC arranged several elections, including that to Comilla and Rangpur cities in a good manner, but it showed its failure in arranging the by-polls to Dhaka city.

"Their neutrality and capacity are still not above the question," he said adding that the Commission will have to perform with honesty, sincerity and neutrality to ensure credible and competitive elections.

Election Commissioner Shahadat Hossain Chowdhury said they tried their best to make the elections fair in the first one year.

Asked about self-assessment, he said, "It's the people who will evaluate it. But we've tried our best."
