

NUHASH'S 'HOTEL ALBATROSS' BAGS 3 AWARDS!

Paper Frogs winning last year's Celebrating Life Best Debut Film award is testament to the promise that Nuhash Humayun showed as a director. This time, his film Hotel Albatross received the Best Actor (Asaduzzaman Noor), Best Editing and the Best New Filmmaker (Nuhash) at the Charunirom Film Festival. "Huge thanks to Charunirom, The Hotel Albatross team and everyone who believed in our weird little film!" is what Nuhash had to say acknowledging this tremendous achievement.

POOJA SENGUPTA representing Bangladesh in Philippines!

One of Bangladesh's premiere dance talents, Pooja Sengupta has been invited to participate at the Philippine International Dance Workshop and Festival 2018, along with her team Turongomi as a part of their "National Dance Week". This is one of the numerous times she has represented Bangladesh internationally. "We are happy, honored and overwhelmed to be a part of this enormous artistic celebration. It is always amazing to represent my beloved country," said Pooja to Star Showbiz.

Producer Pori!

Pori Moni has surprised everyone with the reveal of her production company named "Shonar Tori". The first film to release out of the banner will be Khato and it will feature everyone's favorite actor, the national heart-throb Zayed Khan. The film's first look was released on 9th March and it was praised by both the audience and Zayed Khan himself. "My audience will see a completely different kind of film. I promise that such a script has never been executed before," said Pori.
