

Katrina Kaif joins the "Biggest Dance Film Ever in 3D"

In the latest teaser for the dance drama film ABCD 3, it was announced that the hit sensation Katrina Kaif will be starring alongside Varun Dhawan. Katrina is known throughout Bollywood as one of the most successful faces behind hit film songs and dance numbers, so having her join the cast of this awaited sequel has stirred the attention of fans everywhere. Varun Dhawan, to hype up the teaser, posted on Twitter: "We dance to express, not to impress." He then called ABCD 3 as the "biggest dance film ever" in 3D, which has only served to hype the movie up even more. ABCD 3 is set to be released in 8th November next year.

Source: Hindustan Times

SALMAN KHAN the Song-Writer for 'Race 3'

Ever since the news was first announced, fans have been in constant anticipation of Salman Khan's latest film Race 3. Featuring the prominent actor in an exciting look which is being promoted with the catchphrase "selfless over selfish", dedicated fans have already been swept off their feet. While the film is set to be released much later on 15th June, recent developments have only served to increase the hype. Just a few days ago, it was revealed that Salman Khan, for apparently the second time in his career, is writing a song for this upcoming film. Previously he worked as a lyricist for his 2009 film Wanted, and considering recent prospects, he's very excited to be working as the song-writer once again. Of course, we will be seeing him as the lead star too, so there's plenty of Salman Khan to come around in Race 3!

Source: Internet

The Fault in Our Stars Bollywood Remake!

Anyone who has read or watched The Fault in Our Stars will remember it as a story of a young girl stricken with cancer and how she deals with her teenage urges while living a restricted lifestyle. While the book was a best-seller and the film was a huge hit in Hollywood, get ready to witness a brand new adaptation of it; in Bollywood! The film is being directed by the newcomer Mukesh Chhabra, who hopes to deliver a touching and emotional film. He has chosen the rising star Sushant Singh Rajput to play the lead male role of Augustus Waters. The lead female role of Hazel Lancaster will be played by Sanjana Sanghi, who has previously appeared in Hindi Medium and Rockstar. The director is thus far very confident in his choice of casting, though only time will tell how effectively they portray this popular work of fiction.

Source: Times of India

