

Fulfil pledge to ensure citizens' rights

CJ urges lawyers

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Chief Justice Syed Mahmud Hossain yesterday called upon the lawyers to be more dedicated to fulfil their commitments to ensure citizens' rights.

"Lawyers have a vital role to play in securing the rule of law. The lawyers have a strong commitment to the people of the country to protect their legal and fundamental rights," he said.

The chief justice (CJ) made the remarks at a certificate distribution ceremony organised by Bangladesh Bar Council at Officers' Club in the capital.

As the chief guest of the programme, the CJ distributed certificates among advocates, allowing them to practise in the lower courts.

He also administered the oath among the advocates.

"We have to face all challenges in order to provide inexpensive and speedy justice to the people. We have to respond to the hopes and aspiration of the citizens," he said, urging the fresh lawyers not to be oblivious of the oath.

Speaking at the programme, Law Minister Anisul Huq said the draft law for appointing judges in the higher court has been prepared and will be placed before cabinet soon for an approval.

Along with practising law, the lawyers have to be more careful about mannerism, as success in this profession depends on good behaviour, said the minister.
