

Jam-Glam Ethereal, timeless

For evenings, or indoor parties you can always don the ever gorgeous Jamdani saris, especially with the capes – haute couture this season!

If you want to go slightly Bohemian, then there's the palazzo pants, which can be easily paired with jackets.

Khadi looks avant-garde, but your desire to stick to basics may lead to a new series of experimentation in ubiquitous white and red Jamdani.

If you do not feel comfortable in a Jamdani, and prefer to keep it simple, go for a taant, silk, or even Gadwal.
