

Square Roots

This Baishakh, remember to experiment with new styles and looks. While fresh flowers were all the rage last year you can try out dry flowers, terracotta jewelry, or even silver trinkets.

Remember that fashion and styling should always have comfort in mind, as well as the statement you desire to make.

If you think an Anarkali would look best on you, then an Anarkali it is for the New Year. Whatever the style, be confident and remember to put on a lot of sun screen!

Shubho Noboborsho.
