involved in politics. She urged the young leaders to discard hatred against each other, and asked them to work for the interest of the people and keep the spirit of democracy alive.
ABM Mosharraf Hossain, another training affairs secretary of BNP, said unity among the political parties for the greater interest of the country is a must. "It has been long since we earned independence, but the parties have yet to come up with any agreeable solution on how to conduct the election."
Katie Croake, chief of the Democracy International, said the young leaders had a chance to have dialogues among themselves throughout the fellowship; it is indeed a very good democratic practice. Deputy Mission Director of USAID (Bangladesh) Zeinah Salahi was present, among others.

Of hope and gratitude

Doctors said tumors around Zannatun's head have been removed. Besides, fluids in her skull have also been removed.
She will undergo another surgery after 10 days, informed Akter Jamil Ahmed, deputy general manager of Business Development at the hospital.
"My daughter's condition improved a lot. Her head looks a little smaller," Abdul Alim, her father, told The Daily Star over the phone.
"My daughter will be able to lead a normal life after her treatment ends," said her mother Reshma Khatun, quoting the doctors.
The parents also expressed their gratitude to the doctors at the Apollo Hospitals. With hope, the family are on their way home.

Sources in the PHQ later said they found some of the allegations against him to be true.
This correspondent also obtained an audio record of the conversation between Mizan and the TV presenter.
In the audio record, the DIG threatened to kill the news presenter and a journalist who had "reported against him". He said he would not spare those who were behind his downfall, and that he would take his own life after killing them.
Jamuna Television report mentioned that the phone conversation was recorded by detectives. The Daily Star could not independently verify the voices in the audio record. "We have quit our jobs as we cannot go out of our home for the last five months due to life threat...", said the TV presenter to The Daily Star then.

The Daily Star tried to reach Mizan over two cellphone numbers he called to the TV presenter on different times, but found the phone switched off.
Contacted, Home Minister Asaduzzaman Khan Kamal suggested talking to DMP.
Soheli Ferdous, assistant inspector general (media) of police headquarters, said they were informed the matter through media. Police is investigating the matter.

Violence against women and children has reached a new height due to the culture of impunity, said MJF Executive Director Shaheen Anam at the protest rally.
The government should identify reasons behind the growing rape incidents and ensure the security of women and children through taking effective measures, she added.
Shaheen Anam stressed the need for a united effort to prevent such violence against women and children.
Twenty-two human rights organisations joined the rally.

AGENCE FRANÇAISE DE DÉVELOPPEMENT

Career Opportunity

The Agence française de développement (AFD) - the French Development Agency - is a French public development institution that has been working for more than 75 years to implement the French Government's aid policy in emerging and developing countries. Through a network of 85 local offices, AFD operates in 109 countries providing project finance and assistance to central and local governments, public entities and private enterprises, NGOs, banks and financial institutions. In 2017, AFD provided commitments of EUR 10.4 billion through 750 newly supported projects under the form of loans, grants, technical assistance, guarantees or equity investment. It is currently implementing a portfolio of 3,600 development projects worldwide.

AFD started operating in Bangladesh in 2012 and opened an office in Dhaka in 2013. It provides support to projects contributing to "green and inclusive growth", with a specific focus on sustainable development and climate finance. It is involved in urban development and infrastructures (including transport, water and sanitation), green energy (energy efficiency and renewable energy) and corporate and social responsibility in the garment sector. AFD has committed so far 10 projects for a total amount of nearly EUR 370 million and plans to increase its portfolio to over EUR 600 million by mid-2019. Those projects are mainly sovereign concessional loans, some of which being accompanied by grants delegated to AFD by the European Union.

In order to support the development of its activities in Bangladesh, AFD is seeking to recruit a Project Officer. The position will be based in Dhaka (Banani) and the occupant will report directly to the Country Director.

The Project Officer will be employed by a Service Provider and outsourced to AFD on a contractual basis.

Main duties and responsibilities:

- Supports AFD operations in Bangladesh within AFD (in relation with Head Office) and with local stakeholders and authorities, at every phase of the decision process for new projects (screening, appraisal, approval) as well as during the financing agreements negotiation, projects implementation and portfolio management: meetings with local stakeholders and reporting, organization of and participation in missions by team leaders, due diligence, internal reviews and evaluation
- Supports the processing of disbursement requests under loans and grants
- Maintains and develops relationship with central government authorities and public bodies in relation with the screening, appraisal and implementation of AFD-funded projects
- Maintains and develops relationship with other development partners in Bangladesh, ensures proper coordination with co-financiers and participates to aid coordination meetings
- Identifies new project opportunities with specific focus on new sectors for AFD in Bangladesh (including blue economy and environment protection, renewable energy, sanitation and urban development in secondary cities)
- Monitors the national administrative, legislative and regulatory context for a selection of sectors
- Contributes to the preparation of internal notes about AFD activities and projects in Bangladesh
- Supports the communication activities (including local media watch and reporting on covered sectors)

Qualifications and requirements:

- Advanced university degree in business, finance or engineering
- Project preparation and management; advanced notions in public procurement appreciated
- Experience in priority sectors of AFD in Bangladesh
- Financial and credit skills
- At least 8 years in similar position or other relevant professional experience, preferably in international organizations
- Ability to work in multi-cultural organization and to interact with high-level contacts (including Government officials)
- Strong commitment to development and environmental goals
- Hard-worker, strong initiative and autonomy, result-oriented and constructive mind, interpersonal skills
- Fluent in Bangla and English with excellent written and verbal communication; French notions desirable

Women are specially encouraged to apply.

Applications (CV and cover letter) shall be sent by May 15th, 2018 to: recruit@managewell.com.bd
