DEATH IN DB CUSTODY Dark bruises turn light in inquest report

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Although the body of the man who died in DB custody on Sunday bore many severe bruises and blood clots, the police inquest yesterday found only light bruises on the victim's legs.

"Both the hands are normal ... both the legs are normal ...," read parts of the inquest report.

Sub-Inspector Harichand Hazra of Shahbagh Police Station prepared the report in presence of a magistrate yesterday afternoon.

Contradicting the findings, hospital officials, who saw the body in the last two days, told this correspondent that the body of Ashraf Ali alias Aslam had numerous bruises. Blood clots in lower parts of his knees and on a wrist were spotted clearly, they said.

4 bodies found in Bogra rice field

Families suspect yaba money might be behind the killings

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Bogra

Police recovered throat-slit bodies of four men from a paddy field near Duboier Beel area in the district's Shibganj upazila yesterday.

Three of the dead are Jakaria, 35, Shahabul, 30, and Md Helal, 32. The identity of the other victim could not be confirmed.

The three were known in the area as yaba addicts. Their families suspect that they might have been killed over yaba money.

Locals spotted the bodies in the paddy field around 9:30am and informed police. The bodies were sent to Shaheed Ziaur Rahman Medical College for autopsies, said Shahid Mahmud Khan, OC of Shibganj Police Station.

Sanatan Chakraborty, Additional Superintendent (Bogra circle) of Police, said the hands of the victims were tied behind their back.

Talking to this correspondent, Sahabul's mother Sehera Begum said her son used to go to the capital at times to earn money by pulling a rickshaw. He also had a betel leaf shop in the village.

STAY ON KHALEDA'S BAIL SC hearing on petitions today

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Supreme Court will today hear two government petitions filed against the High Court bail order of BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia in a corruption case.

The HC on March 12 granted her four months' bail in Zia Orphanage Trust corruption case in which she was sentenced to five years in prison. She landed in jail on February 8.

A week later, the SC stayed the HC bail order following two leave-to-appeal petitions filed by the Anti-Corruption Commission and the government. The apex court also fixed today for hearing the petitions.

An Appellate Division bench led by Chief Justice Syed Mahmud Hossain would hear the appeals today.

Counsels for the ACC and the government, and Khaleda have taken preparations for arguments before the apex court.

ACC lawyer said they would place arguments elaborately
