

Tashfee's latest 'Shur'

Being the first female ambassador of ArtistSpread and a rising star in the Bangladeshi music scene, Tashfee is a talented singer who has quickly made a name for herself. Possessing a unique singing style and an amazing voice, she has garnered notable attention from mainstream media as well as renowned musicians. Her latest single Shur was officially launched last Saturday, 12 May, at The Westin Dhaka, with famous artists such as Bappa Mazumder and Hamin Ahmed gracing the event. "I have other songs that were released before but Shur is definitely a special one to me," said Tashfee regarding her brand new song. "I was involved both lyrically and melodically in the making of the song, thus I feel this is truly my first, very own original song." The ecstatic singer further stated that the whole journey was an emotional ride for her and she is hopeful about the song's reception among listeners. "I am proud of everyone who was involved in bringing Shur to life. I have tried my best in creating something unique, and that makes me truly happy." The music video of Shur will be released next week, which will be the first 'vertical' music video of Bangladesh. The lyrics of Shur were written by Tashfee and Shahrin Shahriar, and the music video will be officially distributed by Sony DADC and Creinse.

Momtaz sings for DEBI

Renowned artist Momtaz has lent her voice to the song Doyel Pakhir Konnya Re for Jaya Ahsan's upcoming flick Debi. The song has been composed by Pritom Hasan and the lyrics were written by Rakib Hasan Rahul. While speaking about the song, Jaya said, "There was a scene in the movie where the director and I felt a song by Momtaz Apa would be perfect. She has sung the song with a lot of passion, and we believe the audience would appreciate the song as much as we did." Jaya said the songs of Debi will soon be released. Momtaz, a popular Bangla folk artist, has recorded over 700 songs in her career spanning two decades, including hits like Age Jodi Jantam, Amar Shonar Moyna Pakhi, Morar Kokile and so on.
