

Ideal milk powder for 16-40 Yrs

SAFETY NET SCHEMES

Govt plans to bring more people under coverage

PAGE B1

SPOT-FIXING RETURNS

Al Jazeera documentary reveals two Tests with fixed passages

PAGE 14

'STOP, IF YOU CAN'

Imran Khan vows to oust 'corrupt' Pakistani rulers in July 25 polls

PAGE 8

ARREST

SINCE MAY 4

7,000

CASE FILED

5,500

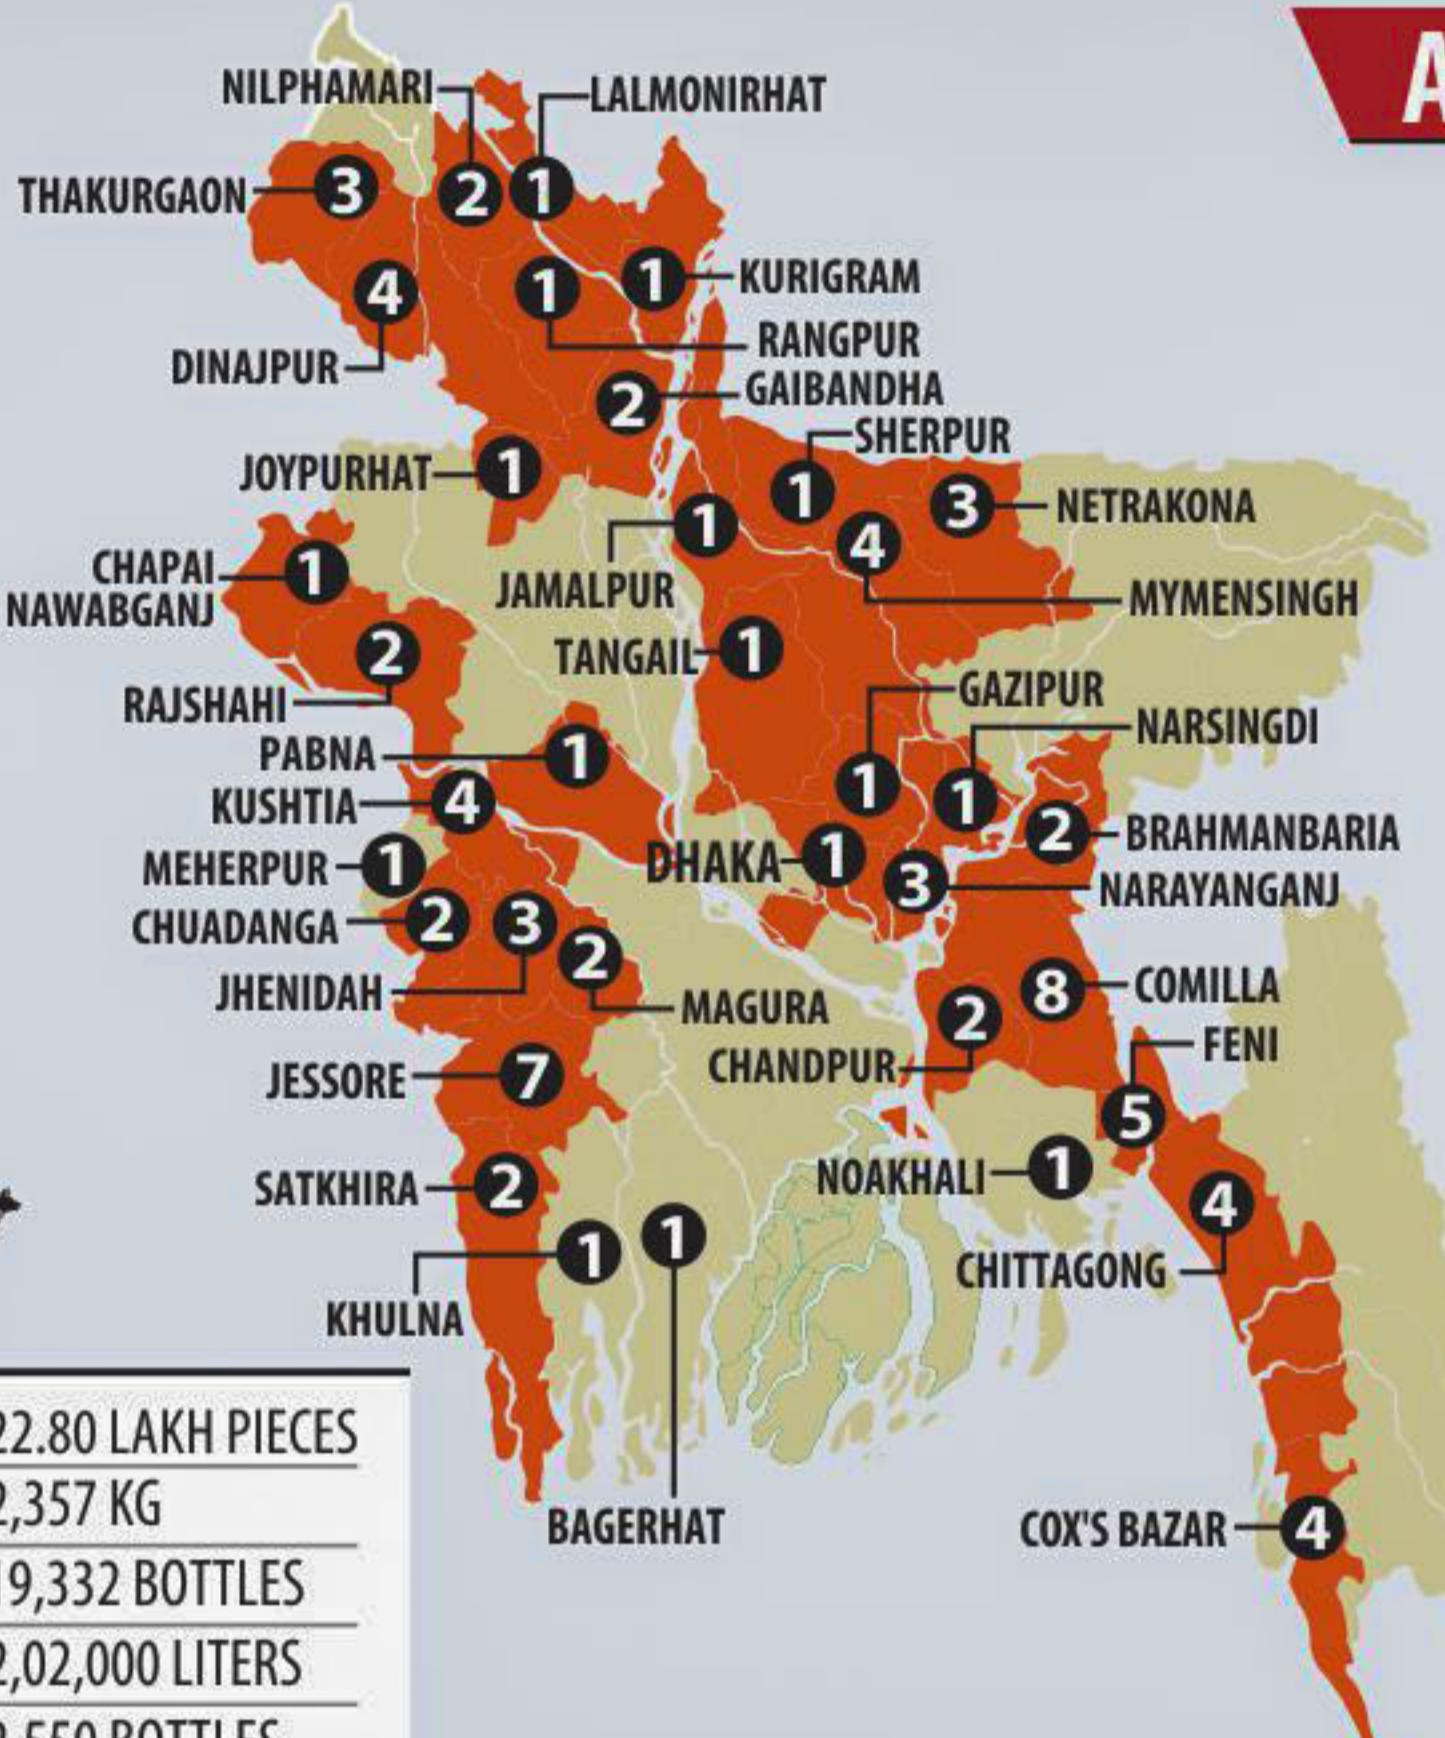

JAILED BY MOBILE COURT

3,018

YABA	22.80 LAKH PIECES
CANNABIS	2,357 KG
PHENSEDYL	19,332 BOTTLES
LOCAL LIQUOR	2,02,000 LITERS
FOREIGN LIQUOR	2,550 BOTTLES

SOURCE: POLICE, RAB

ANTI-NARCOTICS DRIVE

MAY 15-27

Super Shane wins CSK's 3rd

STAR SPORT DESK

The 11th edition of the Indian Premier League came to an end yesterday with Shane Watson striking a sublime century to power Chennai Super Kings to their third trophy with an eight-wicket win over Sunrisers Hyderabad in the final at the Wankhede Stadium in Mumbai.

The win was even more special for Chennai as this season marked their return to the IPL after serving out a two-year ban for spot-fixing.

Hyderabad, with Bangladesh all-rounder Shakib Al Hasan in their ranks, mustered 178 for six after being asked to bat by the Mahendra Singh Dhoni-led Chennai but a chase that looked challenging at the halfway stage turned into a cakewalk once Watson embarked on

SEE PAGE 2 COL 6

RAPE, SEXUAL ASSAULT
Chemical or DNA tests mandatory

Police must record complaint without delay, says HC

ASHUTOSH SARKAR

Chemical or DNA tests must be conducted in all rape or sexual assault cases, and the DNA and other samples should be sent to lab within 48 hours of the occurrence.

Besides, the officers-in-charge of the police stations have

SEE PAGE 11 COL 4

Poura councillor killed in Teknaf

Rab, police give contradictory versions about his involvement in drug trade; 10 others killed in 'shootouts'; home minister says drive to continue

STAR REPORT

A ward councillor of Teknaf municipality and local Awami League leader was killed in what Rab claimed was a "gunfight" between the elite force and drug peddlers in Cox's Bazar early yesterday.

Rab said councillor Ekramul Haque, who had been Teknaf upazila Jibto League president for 13 years, was a top-listed drug dealer. But his family members, relatives and people who knew him vehemently refuted

SEE PAGE 2 COL 2

A farce of a raid

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

It was 1:30pm. Some 1,000 policemen started gathering near Karwan Bazar kitchen market in the capital yesterday. The mobilisation of so many cops drew a huge crowd, curious to know what was happening.

Some policemen told bystanders why they were there: within an hour, they would conduct an anti-narcotics raid at Karwan Bazar railway slum, just a few steps from where they took position.

Presently, they were waiting for their bosses to come and instruct them on

SEE PAGE 2 COL 2

RMP lists drug dealers, addicts

ANWAR ALI, Rajshahi

Rajshahi Metropolitan Police (RMP) has prepared a list of 2,446 dealers and addicts of yaba, heroin and other contraband substances.

Of the listed people, some 999 have been

SEE PAGE 2 COL 1

I'm confident of going to Russia: Salah

AFP, London

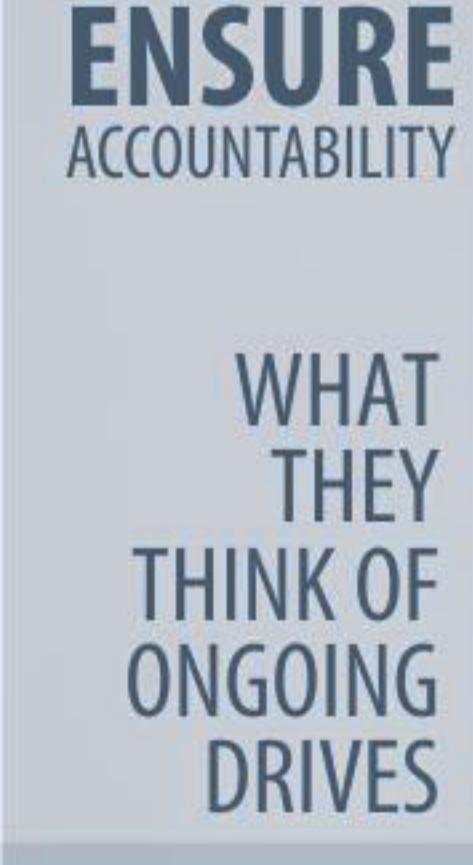

Egypt's Mohamed Salah is "confident" of being fit for the World Cup despite suffering a shoulder injury in Liverpool's Champions League final defeat against Real Madrid.

Salah was forced off in tears during the first half of the 3-1 loss in Kiev on Saturday, sparking fears he wouldn't make it to next month's World Cup.

The 25-year-old sustained the problem when he was dragged awkwardly to the turf following a challenge with Sergio Ramos, leading some to claim the Madrid defender had deliberately tried to injure Liverpool's star forward.

Speaking after the final, Liverpool manager Jurgen Klopp had described the injury as "serious" amid

SEE PAGE 13 COL 4

SULTANA KAMAL
Human Rights activist
The noted human rights activist said the law enforcement agencies' actions would not provide a sustainable solution against illegal drugs.

KAZI REAZUL HOQUE
Chairman, NHRC
"We strongly condemned and protest the killing of people in the name of crossfire," said Chairman of the National Human Rights Commission.

NURUL HUDA
Former Inspector General of Police
The ongoing drive against illegal drugs would create fear among the drug peddlers. That's why movement of drugs

JYOTIRMoy BARUA
Supreme Court lawyer
Jyotirmoy Barua, a Supreme Court lawyer, said the government and the law enforcement agencies' idea to eliminate drugs through killing

SEE PAGE 13 COL 4

Rohingyas brace for monsoon

AFP, Cox's Bazar

Marooned on a dusty slope in the world's largest refugee camp, Osiur Rahman looked to the hill where a Rohingya girl was buried in a landslide just days earlier and contemplated his chances should the earth give way beneath his feet.

"Our families would be killed. There are children everywhere around here. We constantly fear that rain could trigger a landslide," the 53-year-old told AFP on the steep embankment where he lives with nine family members in a bamboo shack.

For the 700,000 Rohingya Muslims who have fled to southeast Bangladesh in the past nine months, the approaching monsoon season poses the most serious threat since they were violently expelled from Myanmar.

Close to one million of the stateless Muslim minority live in the Cox's Bazar district but the new arrivals, stranded on unstable hills in bamboo and plastic shacks, are especially vulnerable.

A massive operation to shore up the camps against disaster is in overdrive, with bulldozers levelling hills and refugees bunkering down however they can.

But as the rains approach, the young girl's death this month in a torrent of mud and rock has heightened fears of a much greater tragedy.

There is a dearth of safe land to relocate the estimated 200,000 refugees in direct danger of floods and landslides, and just 21,000 have been moved so far.

"We could literally have lives lost as people slide down hillsides and valleys are flooded with water," Kevin J. Allen, head of the UNHCR refugee agency's operations in Cox's Bazar, told AFP.

"They could face yet again another emergency, this time driven by mother nature."

SEE PAGE 11 COL 2

A passenger jumps off a moving train moments before it reaches the station at Tejgaon. Many passengers choose to risk their lives in this way in hopes of beating the disembarking rush or even to dodge ticket-inspectors, often resulting in loss of lives.

PHOTO: ANISUR RAHMAN

Rejoinder, our reply

Dinajpur police sent a rejoinder on April 11, 2018 to a report published in The Daily Star on February 5 under the headline "Why police so ruthless to us?" also an editorial titled "Double victimisation of a rape survivor!" on February 6.

The report quoted an 18-year-old woman as saying that she had lodged a case accusing her neighbour of raping her. But police delayed the investigation and later mounted pressure on her family to withdraw the case and reach an out-of-court settlement. As the family did not agree, police arrested the victim's own brother.

The rejoinder, signed by Ruhul Amin, senior assistant superintendent of police in Dinajpur, states that as per the FIR lodged with Bochaganj Police Station on June 6, 2017, police arrested the accused Paritosh Chandra Devsharma.

It added that the probe was delayed for the sake of scientific investigation.

SEE PAGE 11 COL 4