

Mithila's open letter

Mithila, a well-known actor and social activist, is not only successful in her reel life but also has a good understanding of real life. Her thoughts put in words about an alarming issue, has grabbed much attention recently. Her note titled "To All Mother-in-Laws" delineates a general scenario of the turmoil that most of the women of this region experience and then tend to forget once those days are gone. The write-up, besides shedding light on the age-old mother-in-law daughter-in-law conflict, also highlights its consequences for the society which mostly remain unaddressed. In this letter, she projects the importance of the topic at the social level too, "Women will not be able to overcome the barriers of the imbalanced gender role and the casual practice of oppression, which mainly starts from family, without the support from other women who share the same household."

Samina Chowdhury to open a music school

Singer Samina Chowdhury has recently announced that she will open a music school named after her father. She informed that work on the music school will commence soon. Temporarily, she will start the school at her own home, but plans to expand it in the near future. According to Samina Chowdhury, her father had a music school called Adhunik Sangeet Niketon. She also informed that she is doing this to honour her father. Opening a music school had been on Samina's mind for quite some time, but now she has decided to start working towards this end. Samina Chowdhury will teach the students herself. But, if the school expands in the near future, then she will plan some other arrangement.

ASIF-MOUSHUMI'S 'AGUN PANI'

Bangla pop sensation Asif Akbar has released his new music video Agun Pani on July 5th. Actress Moushumi Hamid co-starred with the singer himself as model in the music video.

The song has been written and composed by Tarun Munshi. The video was made by Saikat Nasir. "Both the song and the video have been executed wonderfully. This was my first time working with Moushumi. I played the character of a don in the video and Moushumi played a villain. The gun used in the video belongs to Commonwealth gold medalist shooter Asif Hossain Khan, our country's pride." Moushumi Hamid was also seen excited about the video, "Asif bhai is one of my favorite singers. Working with him was really a pleasure. The audience will discover me in a totally different look in the music video."

The video can be found on the YouTube channel 'Dhruba Music Station'. The audio track will be available on DMS website, GP Music and Banglalink Vibe.
