

SALMAN KHAN TO TEAM UP WITH SANJAY LEELA BHANSALI

Salman Khan and Sanjay Leela Bhansali to work together after 11 years. According to multiple sources, the actor has signed a film with Bhansali titled Inshallah. Shooting for the film will begin once the actor wraps up Bharat. There were rumours previously that the pair had had a falling out after Salman Khan criticized Bhansali for creating a bad film like Guzaarish. But, after Salman came out to support Bhansali during Bajirao Mastani, they came back to speaking terms. Salman also worked with Bhansali in Saawariyaa in 2008, where he made a cameo as Sonam Kapoor's lover. A close source told Filmfare, "Sanjay has delivered some of his biggest career hits with Salman as his main lead. It's been 11 years since the two last worked together, which is why he wants to team up with Salman yet again. The project is reportedly very special for Sanjay and he feels no one better than Salman would fit the lead role."

Source: Internet

SOORAJ PANCHOLI Speaks about Jiah Khan's Death

Sooraj Pancholi has opened up about the darkest period in his life, the suicide of his then girlfriend Jiah Khan. On June 3rd 2013, actor Jiah Khan was found hanging in her bedroom, which caused Sooraj to be arrested on suicide abetment charges. He was later released on bail, but in January 2014, police filed an official 447-page charge sheet. In July 2014, the Bombay HC transferred the probe to the CBI after Jiah's mother Rabia alleged murder. But in December 2015, the CBI filed a charge sheet, ruling out murder.

According to Sooraj, Jiah's suicide will haunt him for the rest of his life. "I think till it doesn't end and even after it ends, people will still think that I come from a known family and so, we must have pulled strings. I am not thinking much about this. I have been blamed for something grave and I will have to live with that all my life. Even after my case is over, it will haunt me," Sooraj told Bombay Times

Source: Internet

Kat-fight?

Recently, the air was abuzz with the news that fellow actor Jacqueline Fernandez and Katrina Kaif, were having rifts during Salman Khan's DaBangg World Tour. According to multiple news sites, a catfight had broken out on the DaBangg set. It was also reported that they were not on speaking terms, and could not even stay in the same hotel. The two may be part of the series of stage shows that will take place across Canada and USA, but they cannot see eye to eye. But, recent pictures shared say otherwise. Jaqueline shared a video of Katrina offering her food, and both seemed to be on good terms. Recent pictures also show both of them posing with fellow tour member Sonakshi Sinha. So, are they really catfighting or is it just a publicity stunt for DaBangg World Tour?

Source: Internet

