

HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS

BNP seeks int'l support

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

BNP yesterday presented statistics of the country's human rights violation to diplomatic representatives of different countries, and urged them to take the issue into their accounts to boost democratic practice here.

"According to our estimate, over 500 opposition party men have gone missing while 10,000 people have been victimised of political killing under Awami League rule," said BNP Secretary General Mirza Fakhrul Islam Alamgir.

Speaking at a seminar held at a Dhaka hotel, Fakhrul came up with the statistics claiming that around 78,000 cases have been lodged, implicating around 18 lakh activists of his party recently. "I would like to request the international community to take a note in this regard for the sake of smooth democratic practice," he said.

The government has become desperate and it is now trying to hang on to power forever by violating human rights, rule of law and the country's constitution, Fakhrul alleged.

During the seminar, BNP screened a documentary about the country's overall human rights situation from 2009 to 2018.

Representatives from embassies and high commissions of USA, France, India, Canada, Sweden, Pakistan, Iran, European Union and United Nations, along with top-level leaders of BNP attended the programme.

The Malaysian minister said the two countries were maintaining good bilateral relations. "We'll continue to promote this for mutual benefits."

"When job seekers came to the office on their joining date, they would see the office gate locked and found their mobile number switched off," said the CID official.

On a tip-off, CID launched a drive on Wednesday and made the arrests while they were inaugurating a new office, he added.

They were also accused in seven fraudulence cases filed with Ramna, Gulshan and Paltan police stations. A money laundering case was filed against the arrestees.

Allegations and counter

On the other hand, AL candidate Khairuzzaman Liton submitted five complaints against BNP.

He alleged that Bulbul's men circulated a propaganda among Hindu voters of Panchabati area, claiming that if elected, Liton would evict them from the locality.

In another complaint, Liton alleged, Bulbul had threatened Sultan Ahmed, a garment trader at RDA market, of dire consequences for working for Liton.

Liton also alleged that Bulbul offered gifts to slum dwellers in Court Station area and circulated rumour among them that Liton would evict them if he becomes the mayor.

He also complained that Bulbul's workers removed his posters in Hatim Khan area, replacing those with the BNP candidate's posters. Bulbul, however, refuted Liton's allegations, saying that Liton's previous tenure as a mayor validates that Hindu voters and slum dwellers are not safe from him.

He also claimed that the Awami League candidate is associated with godfathers of heroin and yaba trade. They are providing his election expenditures, Bulbul added.

Liton spent at least Tk 4 crore to cover the entire city with posters, placards and feestoons in the first two days of election campaign, he said.

Bulbul also said Liton called the staff of Rajshahi City Corporation to his home and threatened of dire consequences if they do not vote for him.

Independent candidate Murad Morshed campaigned among lawyers at Rajshahi Court yesterday. Bangladesh Jatiya Party candidate Habibur Rahman and Islami Andolon candidate Shafiqur Rahman are also contesting the election.
