

Extortion rampant in transport sector

Alleges state minister, slams cops, workers' organisations for realising illegal toll from buses, trucks for every trip on highways

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A state minister who also runs a transport business has come down hard on police and transport workers' organisations for rampant extortion from buses and trucks on highways across the country.

"How would a transport owner survive if he has to pay Tk 7,000 to Tk 8,000 for a trip from Dhaka to Panchagarh," said State Minister for Rural Development and Co-operatives Mashiur Rahman Ranga, also president of Bangladesh Road Transport Owners' Association, yesterday.

He categorically accused leaders and workers of Bangladesh Sarak Paribahan Shramik Federation of unabated extortion on the highways. Shipping Minister Shajahan Khan is the executive president of the Shramik Federation, the umbrella organisation of transport workers' bodies.

Though the Federation is supposed to be an organisation for transport workers, many non-workers have been

BB about report on impure gold in its vault

Bangladesh Bank yesterday refuted the allegation that one of the gold bars kept in its highly secure vault by the customs department was adulterated.

"The purity of the gold [bar] was 40 percent, but it was mistakenly written 80 percent ... It was a clerical error," BB Executive Director SM Rabiul Hassan told reporters at an emergency briefing at the BB headquarters.
