to vacate the lounge after informing them that two government high officials would be arriving at the lounge.

Senior Assistant Commissioner Jahidul Islam then requested the man to show the licence for his firearm considering the security of the two secretaries, said the case statement.

The man refused to show the licence or disclose his identity. Constable Hasib, a security detail of the BMP commissioner, requested him to leave the lounge.

At that moment, a man identifying himself as Saikat Imran, aged around 38, got into an altercation with the constable. At one stage, Saikat and the man along with their cohorts started beating up Hasib.

"As Senior Assistant Commissioner Jahidul Islam tried to calm the situation, they all attacked him and beat up both of them [Jahidul and Hasib] indiscriminately, leaving them bruised," said the case statement.

At one stage, the man with the gun attempted to shoot Jahidul and Hasib, the case statement said, adding that he even tried to take Jahidul away.

Constable Obayed was trying to take photographs of the incident, but the same people beat him up and tried to snatch his camera.

The BMP commissioner called in reinforcements, and when they arrived, the gun-wielding man, Saikat and their cohorts left the lounge.

In the meantime, the secretaries were unable to enter the lounge. "We escorted them to the VIP lounge," said the case document.

No one has been arrested, and investigation is going on, said Sub-Inspector Mohiuddin Mahi, investigation officer of the case.

Contacted, BMP acting commissioner Mahfuzur Rahman yesterday told The Daily Star, "I stand by the case which is now under investigation." Since Barisal City Corporation election is less than two weeks away, disclosing all the information right now would not be appropriate, he said.

Mahfuzur said there were reports by some media outlets which were not true, and they had sent rejoinders.

Moazzam Hossain Alal, joint convener of the BNP, at a press conference at Barisal Sahid Abdur Rob Serniabat Press Club, demanded judicial enquiry into the incident. He said, "How could the election be held in Barisal in free and fair manner when the police commissioner is assaulted?"

BETTER LATE THAN NEVER: Located at the centre of Dhaka city, the Pantha Kunja park was not a good place for families and friends to spend quality time. It was surrounded by piles of garbage at different spots, particularly at the south-west and south-east corners. On top of that, it is a haven for drug addicts. After years of clamours in the media, the Dhaka South City Corporation finally started restoring the park, near Bangla Motor, for the people it was meant for. The photo was taken on Monday.

Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate Md Kaisarul Islam passed the order after inspector of Detective Branch of police Bahauddin Faruki, also the investigation officer of the case, produced Tariqul before the court with a seven-day remand prayer.

On the other hand, Tariqul's lawyer submitted a petition seeking bail and cancellation of the remand prayer. The lawyer said his client's name was not included in the first information report, adding that Tariqul was implicated in the case as part of a conspiracy to divert the quota reform movement. After hearing both sides, the magistrate rejected the bail petition and placed Tariqul on remand.

On July 2, a group of BCL activists beat up Tariqul at DU Central Library premises and handed him over to police. He was later shown arrested in a case filed over assaulting police and vandalising vehicles on April 9. Police also sought a seven-day remand for quizzing him about the quota reform movement.

Earlier on July 10, three other arrestees -- Jashim Uddin Akash, Moshir Rahman and Faruk Hasan -- were remanded for two days in the cases filed over the attack at DU VC's residence and assaulting police and vandalising vehicles on April 9.

After completion of their remands, they were sent to jail on Saturday.

Submit Hall-Mark chair's health report in 2 weeks

HC directs jail authorities

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday directed the jail authorities to submit a report in two weeks on the health condition of Hall-Mark Group Chairman Jasmine Islam.

Justice Md Nazrul Islam Talukder and Justice KM Hafizul Alam passed the order during hearing a rule issued earlier over granting bail to Jasmine, who is now in jail, in a corruption case.

The judges passed the order as Jasmine's lawyer Advocate Abdul Matin Khasru told the court that his client is sick and very weak and prayed to the court to grant her bail.

The bench also adjourned hearing on the rule for two weeks. On July 11, a Dhaka court sentenced Jasmine to three years' rigorous imprisonment in a case filed over her failure to submit her wealth statement to the Anti-Corruption Commission within the given time.

politics," he said.

Sources within Jamaat's local unit said the party is focusing on the next national polls, and this is a part of the process to gain negotiating power within the 20-party alliance, by securing at least the second position in the mayoral contest of Sylhet.

The party has also backed councillor candidates at almost half of the total of 27 wards in the polls.

Lokman Ahmed, member secretary of Sylhet district (South) unit of Jamaat-e-Islami, said the city polls will be a statement of their political stance, he said.

"We do not have our own symbol, but it will not be an issue as we believe that our supporters will vote for any symbol represented by our candidate," he said.

Lokman, also the member secretary of the 20-party alliance in Sylhet, told The Daily Star that the alliance is for national polls, and this is a local government position where they are contesting.

"We do not compromise with anyone in any way, and our participation in the city polls will not influence the upcoming national election," he added.
