Hrithik to tie the knot again?

Hrithik Roshan is all set to get married again, according to Times of India. But any guesses about who's going to take Suzanne's place in Hrithik's life? It's Suzanne herself! Yes, the favorite couple of Bollywood are planning to tie the knot again. The childhood sweethearts were married for 13 years before parting their ways in 2014. They even dated for a while before getting married. After divorce, despite not being together, they have never stopped supporting each other. They were spotted together along with their kids several times. Even when the B-town air was heavy with Hrithik-Kangana controversies, Sussane was always there by his side. In an interview where Sussane was asked who she loves the most, she mentioned Hrithik's name along with those of her sons. Is this reconciliation just for the kids or the old love has re-ignited once again?

Priyanka & Nick Exchange Rings!

The exotic queen is back again, this time with a bigger bash! Her engagement with Nick Jonas has broken the hearts of many while others are falling short of words. Though they have not cleared up anything themselves, their overflowing love along with a shining ring on her finger could not avoid the eyes of the paparazzi. Besides drooling over this news, the air has gotten heavy with questions from her fans and well-wishers. Is it merely a publicity stunt? Or is it a dire attempt to make her roots firmer in the Hollywood industry? Only time will tell. Priyanka and Nick Jonas have been dating for two months and currently they are on a vacation in Ye Olde England. According to various reports, Piggy Chops, during her holidays, visited Prince Harry and Meghan Markle along with Nick and both the couples had a great time together.

JOY - SAYANTIKA'S Rocky Relationship

Sayantika Banerjee and Joy Mukherjee are together in the news again but for all the wrong reasons this time. Separation followed by break up fights is nothing new in T-Town. But this time things seem pretty serious as Bengali actor Joy was arrested by Kolkata police on the charges of assaulting actor Sayantika Banerjee. They were together for almost 9 years during which they were even named as the ideal couple of the town. But all that glitters is not gold. Facing harassment from Joy several times, Sayantika called off the relationship. But this wasn't enough to put a halt to his atrocities. According to various reports and sources, recently Sayantika was badly treated by the actor who also tried to damage her car. The actor's assistant who was there in the car with her tried to pacify angry Joy but was instead hit by the actor. Besides pairing up for movies like Target and Shooter when together, the duo has also shared screen for Uma even after their break up.
