Another bridge collapses

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Pirojpur

An iron bridge on the Tushkhali canal collapsed on Friday night, disrupting communication on several routes, including those going to Dhaka.

An iron bridge at Gudighata village under Mathbaria upazila collapsed in June, 2016 and another iron bridge at Madarshi village in Bhandaria upazila on the same road collapsed in August last year.

The one at Madarshi village was repaired, but the other one was not repaired. Instead, a road was built by blocking the canal at Gudighata village.

Witnesses said a truck carrying an earth-lifter, locally called beku, got on the bridge on the Charkhali-Tushkhali-Mathbaria road in Mathbaria upazila while a three-wheeler got on from the opposite side at the same time.

The bridge collapsed on one side as the truck tried to make room for the three-wheeler, they said. The truck driver, however, managed to flee, they added.

The road connects Pirojpur with Barisal, Khulna, Dhaka, Jessore and Barguna and other places in the district.

"As we have not found the owner of the truck or the driver, we are having trouble removing it from the bridge," said Md Fakharul Islam, sub-assistant engineer of Pirojpur Roads and Highway Department.

He said the bridge has the capacity of bearing a maximum load of 20 tonnes, but the truck was carrying more weight than that.

She died at Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) on Friday.

Seven days ago, she tried to commit suicide by setting fire to herself after pouring kerosene, said police and family sources.

Before her death, the girl gave a statement to the doctor of the hospital. However, police could not arrest any of the blackmailers.

The 15-year-old deceased was the daughter of Moslem Miah of Sakumira village in Harirampur upazila and a student of Diabari High School.

Sumaiya's brother Saiful said his sister had a love affair with Manna, 20, of the same village. After the matter became known, both families recently agreed to their marriage.

Sumaiya

After the incident, Sumaiya's classmates Rehana and Yasin created a fake indecent picture with photoshop and later showed it to Manna. Following the incident, Manna ended the relationship.

Not only this, Rehana and Yasin also blackmailed Sumaiya's family several times by showing the indecent picture and forced them to give Tk 25,000.

Out of shame and fear, Sumaiya poured kerosene on her body and set herself on fire at their house on July 27.

Critically injured Sumaiya was rushed to Harirampur Upazila Health Complex and then shifted to the burn unit of DMCH, where she died on Friday, said her brother.

The victim's father filed a case with Harirampur Police Station, accusing Manna, Rehana and Yasin.
