

EID AGAIN

Eid-ul-Azha is knocking at our doors once more, and we at Lifestyle are gearing up to celebrate, along with our readers, starting with this very issue. Turn the pages from 8 to 20 to find the ever-important recipes, or plan the perfect laid-back party for your closest friends for the Eid afternoon, after the frenzy of the sacrifice is over. Or take a trip to Makkah with us, in your mind's eye. Or learn about Bengal Meat, one of the first companies to offer a variety of Qurbani services to make the city dwellers life easier. Bon appetit, and Eid Mubarak!
