'Venomous' Divorce!

Their announcement of separation sent shockwaves throughout Hollywood and broke the heart of the 'Brangelina' fans worldwide, but their eyes never went off this couple. Brangelina is again in the headlines regarding their divorce, but this time the reason is Angelina Jolie's lawyer. Or more appropriately the Maleficent actor's behavior. A new report claims that Jolie has become so aggressive and unreasonable throughout the split that her lawyer Laura A. Wasser had to announce her resignation from this "venomous" case. According to sources, Jolie's uncompromising behavior is attempting to kill Brad Pitt's relationship with his kids, and her lawyer Wasser, who has handled famous divorces of stars such as Ashton Kutcher and Demi Moore, Heidi Klum and Seal, as well as Mariah Carey and Nick Cannon, promotes settlements and co-parenting. According to sources, people close to the celebrity couple are inclined to a rather negative conclusion, saying, "They are not on good terms and are less than civil."
