

Bangladeshi youth killed in South Africa

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Comilla

A Bangladeshi expatriate was shot dead by alleged robbers in Johannesburg of South Africa on August 24.

The deceased was identified as Ismail Hossain, 32, son of Abul Kalam of Nangolkot upazila.

Ismail have been living in South Africa since 2011. He operated an electronics shop at Johannesburg, said his family members.

On Friday, a gang of robbers attacked their shop. Ismail was shot dead on the spot while his father became unconscious, they added.

He had spoken to his mother just before the incident had occurred. Ismail was planning to come home the following month to get married.

"We are processing documents to bring the body back to the country," said Mamunur Rashid, uncle of the victim.

REPULSIVE... In the overcrowded Dhaka, the Hatirheel project was supposed to be a respite for city dwellers. But in some cases, it is doing quite the opposite. Whenever passing by the lake, a pedestrian or commuter is bound to catch the stench it gives off near Sonargaon hotel because several drainage pipes empty into this lake. Making matters worse is the recent waste of sacrificed animals getting into the water. The photo was taken yesterday.

College student killed for protesting stalking

Prime accused still at large

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Savar

It has been six days, police are yet to arrest the prime accused in a case filed over the murder of a college student, who protested stalking of a friend, on Tuesday.

The deceased is Maruf Khan, son of Ataur Rahman Khan of Savar's Genda area. He passed HSC exams from Dhaka Commerce College this year.

Around 6:00pm on the day, some 10 to 12 stalkers led by one Manju, son of Ramiz Uddin of Talbag area, stabbed Maruf, 18, with a knife in Genda Bus Stand area, said police quoting family members.

Earlier in the day, the girl was heading home from her friend's house. When she reached the area, the group started harassing her. As she informed Maruf, he went to the spot and protested the incident.

Soon a scuffle ensued. Maruf's elder brother also came to the spot. At one stage, Maruf got stabbed, said his brother and witnesses. The group then fled the scene.

Maruf was taken to Savar Enam Medical College Hospital. The doctors there referred him to Dhaka's Shaheed Suhrawardy Medical College Hospital. He died on the way.

His brother Lutfar Rahman Khan filed a murder case with Savar Model Police Station on Wednesday accusing Manju, Shamol, Plabon, Rohij, Shamim, Imran, Momin and three unnamed persons. All the accused are aged between 20 and 25.

"We demand justice for my brother," said Lutfar.

The case's Investigation Officer Apurbo Das, a sub-inspector of the police station, said, "We have detained one Asadul in this connection. We are trying to arrest the rest, who are on the run." The IO said they have also collected footage of CCTV installed in the area.

Meanwhile, many locals alleged that the group led by Manju used to extort people using political influence. They used to claim themselves as activists of Chhatra League and Tarun League.

A BCL activist of Savar municipality alleged that Manju often introduced himself as a former BCL leader and using the "fake identity" collected extortion money from drivers in the area.

Saidur Rahman, president of BCL (Dhaka north), said, "Manju is not a BCL activist. At times, the group used to come to our events. I'm not aware of his activities."

Meanwhile, Altaf Hossen Khaja, convener of Dhaka district Tarun League, said, "Manju was a president candidate of Tarun League. But we had decided not to consider him as one due to his behaviour."

This correspondent visited Manju's residence in Talbag area on Saturday. The one-storied house was found locked from outside.

Roma Chowdhury shifted to ICU

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Freedom fighter Roma Chowdhury was shifted in the intensive care unit (ICU) of Chittagong Medical College Hospital (CMCH) on Saturday.

She was admitted at CMCH in January this year. She was shifted to the ICU on Saturday due to mineral imbalance, Dr Kazi Md Abrar Hasan, associate professor of Medicine Department of CMCH said.

She was also suffering from diarrhea which led to weakness, along with other old-age complications, he said. The doctor added that all necessary treatment has been arranged for her.

Roma Chowdhury -- who was tortured and violated by the Pakistani occupational army at her village in Boalkhali upazila of Chittagong during Liberation War, suffered a fractured waist in January this year, and was admitted at CMCH.

She has written 18 books including a chronicle of her days in 1971 named 'Ekattorer Janani'.

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina invited her to Gono Bhaban in 2013. When the PM asked whether she needs anything, she did not take any grants as she made a living by selling her books.

potential tenants, said the couple's neighbour Hasina Begum. She said after a few minutes the women left the couple's room.

"As we did not get any response from the couple, we entered the room around 5:30pm and found them unconscious with foaming mouths," Hasina told reporters at Dhaka Medical College Hospital where the victims were rushed to.

Shahera was pronounced dead on arrival to DMCH at 6:50pm, while Sattar died one hour later.

Hasina also said the women had come to the house earlier on Saturday to rent the house, and the couple asked them to come the next day. After they arrived yesterday, Sattar fixed the monthly rent at Tk 2,200 and allowed them to enter their room.

Quoting the neighbours, sub-inspector Nasiruddin Hawlader of Demra police station said although the women were wearing burqa, their faces were visible.

Chittagong City Corporation recently installed lamp-posts with solar panels for street lighting on the Marine Drive road, but some pillars have become shaky as unidentified people stole the bolts from the nuts on their base. The photos were taken yesterday.

Salam Murshedi lone candidate of Khulna-4 by-polls

UNB, Khulna

Awami League candidate Abdus Salam Murshedi, a former national footballer and ex-president of Bangladesh Garment Manufacturers and Exporters Association (BGMEA), submitted nomination paper for by-election to Khulna-4 constituency yesterday as the lone candidate.

Murshedi submitted the nomination paper to Md Yunus Ali, returning officer and also election officer of Khulna divisional regional election office, at noon.

Although yesterday was the last date for submitting the nomination paper, two other intending candidates who collected nomination forms did not submit them.

The by-election to Khulna-4 comprising of Rupsa, Terokhada and Dighalia, is scheduled to be held on September 20. The Khulna-4 constituency fell vacant with the death of AL's three-time lawmaker SM Mostafa Rashidi Suja on July 26.
