NSU Social Services Club arranges annual event "Joy for Eid"

To some of us, Eid is a festival of joy and happiness. Unfortunately to some Eid is just another day like the rest of the year. Thus, to bring smiles on the faces of these less privileged people, North South University Social Services Club (NSUSSC) arranged their yearly event "Joy for Eid".

Over the past few years, NSUSSC has been providing the disadvantaged people of the community with bags containing food and supplies every Eid-ul-Azha. This year the event was held on August 14, 2018 at NSU premises. With great ardour, these tokens of joy were distributed among 300 families of Kuril area and the blue-collar employees of NSU.

Everyone present was overwhelmed seeing a glimpse of the lit faces of the people including the Director of Student Affairs, Parisa Shakur; Deputy Director of Public Relations, Belal Ahmed; and the Faculty Advisor of NSUSSC, Md. Mofassel Hossain.

On this occasion, Tasnina Momo, President of NSUSSC commented, "We celebrate the happiness of the joyful festival of Eid by sharing it. This time we tried to involve more families than the past years."
