

Eminem Drops Surprise Album

The renowned rapper Eminem dropped his 10th studio album on 30th of August unannounced. The album, titled Kamikaze was hailed by most fans as a return to his former glory, as his previous album, Revival was lambasted by fans and critics alike. Social media has been abuzz ever since he released the 13 track album. Fans and critics have reacted both very positively and negatively to the album. Eminem embraced his former style of discussing controversial topics on this album. He criticized everyone from US President Donald Trump to music critics; he even took a jab at rapper Drake. The album was co-produced by Eminem's long time friend Dr. Dre, and it also contains a song recorded for the upcoming film, Venom which stars Tom Hardy.

BONO LOSES VOICE MID-CONCERT

U2 had to cancel a show in Berlin after performing only five songs on the 1st of September. U2 frontman Bono lost his voice, during their Berlin set. They were forced to cancel the show after Bono was rendered unable to perform. Afterwards, Bono released a statement where he said, "So happy and relieved that anything serious has been ruled out. My relief is tempered by the knowledge that the Berlin audience were so inconvenienced. There was an amazing atmosphere in the house, it was going to be one of those unforgettable nights but not for this reason." Bono also announced that they would do another show in Berlin, on November 13 to make up for the cancellation. U2 also released a statement after the show. They said that Bono was able to sing perfectly before the show, and that they did not know the reason for his loss of voice. They also reported that Bono is currently seeking medical advice.
