

Let the EYES DO all the talking!

Imagine a couple sitting on a pier by the sea, hands entwined and hair dancing gently with the wind. The girl looks straight ahead watching the sunset, eyes twinkling. With her beautiful doe-eyes she captures one of the most beautiful moments in the world. Her companion looks straight at her face, as he is in awe by the striking sight. In his eyes, she is the most beautiful girl in the world — this lady with teal shades, perfect cat lines and a hint of mascara...

What are things that we notice about people when we first meet them? Is it how their hair falls on their face? No it's the eyes...whether they shine, sparkle, smile, glimmer or maybe hiding behind some kind of grim. Either way, it's always the eyes!

And if these eyes are decorated in a way that expresses our feelings further. There cannot be anything better than such a beautiful sight.

So shine away, whichever way you please, with whatever colours suit best. Tint those eyes, dab on some mascara and make the world turn its head around in awe.
