Govt planning to form

Inu said, "If we look at the rumours, we will see that it was coming from BNP-Jamaat. BNP-Jamaat is the factory of producing rumours and lies."

Inu alleged that they are recently spreading lies about Khaleda Zia's sickness.

"Sickness of Khaleda Zia is a rumour and a lie. She is alright," Inu alleged, adding that the same group is now also spreading rumours about the upcoming national election, creating confusion among people whether it would be held or not.

Inu said the social media should be kept clean from BNPamaat's rumours. Tarana Halim, state minister for information, alleged that Jamaat-Shibir is funding rumours from London to create anarchy in the country. "The game of spreading rumours on social media should be stopped before it spreads," she added.

Inu said they would take actions against whoever spread rumours and lies. "But whenever we take actions, a certain quarter cries out that there is no democracy and freedom of speech," he said. "Such stance does not safeguard the democracy, but favours them who spread rumours," Inu added. Inu concluded with the necessity of digital literacy. "To prevent rumours, we should educate people with digital literacy," he added. Prof Mofizur Rahman of the mass communication and ournalism department at Dhaka University presented the keynote paper at the event, where he spoke about rumours, fake news and propaganda, and made suggestions to prevent them.

The programme was presided over by Kamrun Nahar, principal information officer to the government. Information Secretary Abdul Malek also spoke.

Shut down 14 hospitals

New Well Care Hospital and Bangladesh Trauma Specialized Hospital. In the petition, the writ petitioner said the respondents have failed to take steps against the authorities concerned of the hospitals and clinics, although they (respondents) are experienced public servants and very much aware of government rules and instructions. The HC also issued a rule asking respondents to explain in four weeks why their failure and inaction to do so should not be declared illegal.

Secretaries to the health service division and medical education and family welfare division of the health ministry, DG of Directorate of Health Services, chairperson and vice-chairperson of Bangladesh Medical and Dental Council, commissioner of Dhaka Metropolitan Police, chief executive officer of Dhaka North City Corporation, executive magistrate concerned of Rab and officer-in-charge of Mohammadpur Police Station have been made respondents to the rule.

The court also asked the respondents to show causes why they should not be directed to take appropriate legal actions against those responsible for operating the medical centres.

Advocate Manzill Murshid appeared for the petitioner while Deputy Attorney General Mokhlesur Rahman represented the government.

SCBA urges law minister

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

2ND EDITION

Supreme Court Bar Association (SCBA) yesterday requested Law Minister Anisul Huq to withdraw his comment on BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia's lawyers over shifting her trial to old Dhaka central jail.

Terming his comment "regrettable and unfortunate", SCBA president Advocate Zainul Abedin said, "He is a lawyer, the law minister and a responsible person. The countrymen, including his peers, do not expect such a comment from him."

"The law minister's comment was an insult to all lawyers of the country," the SCBA president also said at a press conference at the SCBA auditorium.

On Monday, pro-BNP lawyers said shifting the trial was a "misuse of judicial powers" by the law ministry and sought chief justice's intervention in this regard.

They submitted an application to the office of Chief Justice Syed Mahmud Hossain, requesting him to launch enquiries and take appropriate actions against the judicial officers "encroaching their legal boundaries at the instruction of the government".

The minister, in response, refuted the allegations, saying, "I think, if they have made such allegations, I will say that they [Khaleda's lawyers] don't know law."

SCBA Secretary Barrister AM Mahbub Uddin Khokon also spoke at the press conference.

After the SCBA press conference ended, pro-Awami League lawyers held another briefing and requested the SCBA not to create any controversy over the law minister's comment.

They said the gazette notification regarding Khaleda's trial in old Dhaka central jail was issued as per Section 9(2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC) and is legal.

College student's body found in the Bay

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

A college student was found dead yesterday, more than six hours after he had gone missing in the Bay of Bengal in Chittagong.

The body of Asif Shahriar Rubel, 18, was caught in fishing net in Jelepara area, said Hamidul Islam, assistant subinspector of Patenga Police Station.

Asif went missing after he along with his friends had gone to Patenga sea beach around 12:30pm that day, said the ASI.

without conducting any feasibility study. Asked about the feasibility study, the planning minister said, "There's no need for feasibility study because we have been using the EVM and we are familiar with it."

Mustafa Kamal also said EVMs are already in use in the local government elections. But for using it in the national election the Representation of People Order (RPO) has to be amended.

Replying to a question on how it will be implemented as only a few months are left before the next national election, the minister said that the task of the planning ministry is to how it will be implemented, he said.

Replying to another query regarding the EC opening Letter of Credit (LC) with a private bank before the project's approval, the planning minister said he does not know anything about this, adding that for opening LC, a project has to exist.

The minister also said if reporters have any specific information about this, he would raise it at the next Ecnec meeting.

The EC has so far used EVMs on a very limited scale in several local government elections in recent years.

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Thakurgaon

A motorcyclist was killed and two others injured as their motorbikes collided on Dhaka-Panchagarh highway in Telipara area of Thakurgaon municipality yesterday morning, said police.

The deceased -- Mojaffar Hossain, 40 -- was from Muslimnagar area of the municipality.

The two others -- Fazlul Karim, 37, and his wife Shirin Akhter, 34 -- were undergoing treatment at Rangpur Medical College Hospital.

Five idols found broken at Ctg shop

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Five idols of Hindu deities were found broken at a shop in Chittagong on Monday afternoon.

Artisan Gauranga Acharjee put the idols -- two of Ganesh and three of Bishwakarma -- on display at his shop for sale, said Shyamal Palit, president of Chittagong District Puja Udjapan Parishad.

A local was seen fleeing the scene before Gauranga reached his shop at Shantiniketan Bazar in Rangunia, Shyamal quoted the artisan as saying.

Guaranga filed a case against the man on Monday night, said Imtiaz Bhuiyan, officer-in-charge of Rangunia Police Station.

JU geography teachers abstaining from duties for nine days

JU CORRESPONDENT

Most of the teachers of geography and environment department of Jahangirnagar University have refrained from performing academic duties for the last nine days.

They said they have been doing so demanding that an academic council meeting of the department be held by September 20. Yesterday, around 20 teachers submitted a written statement to department Chairman Prof Manzurul Hasan to press home the demand. They alleged that the chairman did not call any such meeting since he took charge on August 26. Prof Hasan told The Daily Star that no teacher informed him about the class and exam boycott.
