will be unified in this regard," Saddam Hussain, general secretary of BCL's DU unit said.
Akramul Haque, central general secretary of Chhatra Dal also welcomed the initiative and said political coexistence is needed to hold the elections.
On September 4, Advocate Manzill Murshid sent a legal notice to the DU authorities to take steps to hold the Ducus election within seven days.
When the authorities did not take any step, on Wednesday the lawyer filed a contempt of court petition, as DU authorities' failure violated an HC rule that ordered holding the polls.

Each of you is now

Addressing the new campaigners, the road safety crusader said, "Each of you is now an Ilias Kanchan."
"When I initiated the road safety campaign 25 years back, not everyone could understand my message. Some of them even called me mad... But I didn't stop," he said.
"Finally, the general people have realised how important it is to ensure our safety on roads. Now people have also started demanding safe roads," said Ilias Kanchan, who has been carrying the rigorous campaign since the tragic demise of his wife, Jahanara Kanchan, in a road crash in 1993.
He said the road safety protests of students made the government realise the need to implement traffic rules strongly.
"After the protests, we're seeing pedestrians didn't learn any lesson as they are still not following traffic rules -- crossing roads hastily."
The Nischa founder advised new members to become aware first and then create awareness among the people.
"Don't tell drivers to drive fast. Better tell them to be careful and drive safely," he said, also asking new members to take a stand against corruption in transport and road sector.
"You have got a smartphone. You can record any wrongdoings and let the people know about it," he added.

Bishwo Shahitto Kendro awards 447 readers

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

TIB disappointed

human rights violation as per the Right to Information Act 2009 will be curbed due to the misuse of section 32.
"Therefore, corruption and crimes relating to human rights violation will spread further," he said, adding that the section would act as a major impediment in conducting investigative journalism and research.
If the bill is passed, he said, it will go against the spirit of the constitution and restrict free-thinking and freedom of speech. It will also impede independent journalism, he added.
"A sense of insecurity will be created among the citizens in the name of digital security," he said.
TIB hoped that the government and the Jatiya Sangsad will refrain from "taking the suicidal path" and create further scope to have discussion with the stakeholders on it.
The possibilities of ensuring good governance and curbing corruption, enhanced by the growth of information technology, will face a setback due to the proposed law, the TIB statement said, adding it will also limit the role of citizens, civil society and media in achieving the sustainable goals.
The bill was placed at the parliament on April 9 amidst growing concerns among journalists and rights activists that freedom of the press and expression would be seriously jeopardised if the bill was passed as it was.

TRYING TO SECURE PASSPORTS 2 Rohingya women held in N'ganj

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Narayanganj
Two Rohingya women were arrested in Narayanganj yesterday afternoon, while trying to get Bangladeshi passports made concealing their Myanmarese nationality.
They were detained from Narayanganj regional passport office at Jalkuri, and handed over to police.
The two women are Nur Kayes, 22, daughter of Amir Hamza of Bagbunia camp's A-1 centre under Ukha thana of Cox's Bazar, and Rashida Akter, 20, daughter of Abul Kalam of Balukhali camp I-20 centre in the same area.
Siddhirganj Police Station Inspector (investigation) Nazrul Islam said the two women went to the regional passport office to get Bangladeshi passports through brokers, claiming to be residents of Narayanganj. Inconsistencies were found in the statements of the two women which raised suspicion among passport officials. At one stage of interrogation, their real identities were revealed. The officials at the passport office detained them and handed over to police.
The two confessed to police that although they are Myanmar nationals, a group of brokers lured them with the promise of sending them to Malaysia in exchange for Tk 1 lakh.
Siddhirganj Police Station OC Abdus Sattar said cases would be filed against them for concealing information.
