

THE GREAT DISTRACTION

Whether it's an ongoing debate in your online community, or a dispute over a fare on a local bus, you don't need an acute sense of observation to be able to tell that the people tend to make every issue a divisive one. Everyone has to pick a side, and everyone seeks to defeat and destroy the other side either with their words, their intellect, or the loudness of their voice, if not with their fists. There's one thread that invariably unites us though, something over which we collectively share joy, disappointment, and pride. It's cricket.

Being united on the common thread of cricket is all nice and dandy, until we find it difficult (also collectively) to bring ourselves back to reality. In these days of hyper connectivity, an issue is an important issue as long as it's a visible and trending topic. What tends to happen when we collectively shift our attention towards something like cricket is that an issue that was important and visible tends to vanish from the limelight. We eventually find something new to bicker or swoon over, but what's forgotten once seldom comes back. It's really not fair to blame cricket for the dearth of longevity in our collective consciousness, but it is something worth thinking about. Lest we forget.

– Azmin Azran, Sub-editor, SHOUT

THIS WEEK'S HORRORSCOPE

ARIES

Liking Game of Thrones cannot be a substitute for having a personality.

TAURUS

You're not sad. You're sadé.

GEMINI

At least Cardi B's shoes got to meet Nicki Minaj.

CANCER

At least Cardi B's shoes attended New York Fashion Week.

LEO

Just like everything else, Leo month has come to an end.

VIRGO

IT'S VIRGO MONTH!!!!

LIBRA

Libra month will be here pretty soon, don't worry.

SCORPIO

You'll drink water today.

SAGITTARIUS

What is Thanos car?

CAPRICORN

Can we watch The Nun together?

AQUARIUS

And how did it make you feel?

PISCES

Have the stars ever lied to you? Because they lie to me every day and I think it's quite unfair.

APP REVIEW

The ultimate mobile office suite

NAFIS IMTIAZ ONISH

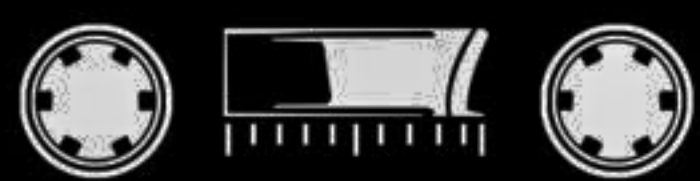

While Google have perfected a lot of things, an all-in-one office suite is certainly not on that list. Almost all Android users have gone through the ordeal of trying to use Google's office apps as their daily driver and ended up downloading Microsoft's apps instead. However, the Microsoft apps are not optimised very well for phones either and you need to download individual software for Word, PowerPoint, PDF, etc.

WPS Office is an all-in-one free office suite with an integrated Memo, Document, Spreadsheet, Presentation, and PDF reader. It is fully compatible with MS Office, Google Docs, Sheets, Slide, Adobe, OpenOffice etc. making this the go-to productivity app.

The WPS Office UI is minimalistic yet it still manages to bring all the necessary features in one screen. You can launch the app, select which format of file you want to create or open and it instantly takes you there. The "recent" section is another helpful addition that helps you toggle between the recently opened files of all the compatible formats. Due to its ubiquitous nature, the app saves a lot of clutter and proves to be quite handy for daily usage.

So whether you prefer to write on your phone, read e-books, or just casually use it for daily purposes, WPS Office will bring all your files together and provide you with an all-encompassing delightful experience.

MIXTAPE

HABIT

THE KOOKS

Bad Habit

LINKIN PARK

Breaking the Habit

TOVE LO

Habits

JAYMES YOUNG

Habits of My Heart

MACHINE GUN KELLY

Habits

THE LAST SHADOW